

Chalet Aurelio Clubhouse

Lech, Austria

What we love...

We love the private spa area, with indoor pool, sauna, Jacuzzi, massage rooms and even a cinema with surround sound in the relaxation area.

An air of gentleman's club pervades this stunning property. Chalet Aurelio Clubhouse is a luxury ski chalet in Lech, connected via an underground passage to the five-star Aurelio Hotel.

An air of quiet sophistication in the living room makes this a wonderful place to enjoy some peace and relaxation, overlooked by the carved wood mezzanine gallery and warmed by the fireplace. There's also a library, with more than 2,000 books in several languages. In the private dining room, with its long, refectory style table and chairs upholstered in quirky animal print, you can enjoy food served direct from the restaurant's kitchen, while enjoying the views of the slopes outside.

In terms of entertainment, the chalet is completely self-contained. A spa area, with swimming pool, Jacuzzi, sauna and massage rooms offers enough space for everyone to enjoy some pampering time at once. A relaxation room in the spa area even has a cinema and surround sound so you can enjoy your favourite film while you restore body and mind.

With the world-class Hotel Aurelio Lech literally on your doorstep, with all its facilities open for your enjoyment, there's little more you could ask for here. And yet there's also a very personal service at your beck and call 24/7 in the shape of your private butler, who will make it his business to ensure your every wish is taken seriously and every member of your party is treated like a king.
