

Chalet Chesetta

Silvaplana, near St. Moritz

What we love...

We love the classic style with a contemporary edge, fully loaded with state of the art technology and a wonderful homely ambiance.

What they say...

"Staying at Chesetta is not like a break in a five-star hotel, it's like staying with wealthy relatives who can't do enough to make you happy."
Financial News.

For private luxury with hotel-style service you can't do better than Chesetta. Dubbed 'The perfect escape...for all the family,' by style-setting magazine Harper's Bazaar, Chesetta is an exclusive ski chalet with stunning views to the Corvatsch mountains. Situated in the sunny, celebrity-hide-out village of Silvaplana, Chesetta is close to St Moritz, the stylish resort that has featured in several James Bond movies.

Chesetta is a mixture of modern furnishings and antique fittings – and some contemporary touches. Wood panelling, open fireplaces lends warmth to the 5,000 square foot that makes up this luxury ski chalet, whilst plush Etro fabric-clad sofas, deep bathtubs and unique lighting features make Chalet Chesetta the ideal place to return after a long day in the mountains.

A short stroll from Silvaplana's renowned snow kiting school, cross country ski trails and skating rink, Chesetta, is just a few minutes drive away from the luxurious resort of St Moritz. You can enjoy dog sledding and heli skiing, riding the fabled Cresta run, snowshoe hiking into the Val Fex, or sledding the surrounding slopes at full moon.

With facilities ranging from a Bose home cinema, a gym equipped with sauna and a playroom for the younger members of your group, comfort is top of the menu at Chesetta.

A seasoned team of service professionals will ensure that your stay goes as smoothly as your time on the surrounding pistes on your luxury ski holiday at Chalet Chesetta.
