

Chalet Grand Cerf Meribel, France

What we love...

We love the contemporary style of this gorgeous chalet in Meribel. Everything about Chalet Grand Cerf is five star fabulous, from the huge double height living space to the enticing wellness area.

This eight bedroom super-chalet is a riot of industrial warehouse chic and funky designer quirkiness within an enormous space.

Every inch of Chalet Grand Cerf is a cool style statement, from the shape of the giant anglepoise floor lamp to the pebble-smooth freestanding baths. It's just like staying in the hippest new boutique hotel, with just yourselves as the guests and all the five star service that entails. You could easily forget that you were here for the skiing.

After a day on the slopes of Meribel and the extensive Three Valleys ski area, just veer off the Georges Mauduite piste and head down the little path that leads to your door. From the outside, Chalet Grand Cerf looks like a traditional, if supersized, pretty wooden chalet. But enter through the ski room on the top floor and you step into a brave new world of luxury.

Cruise down in the lift, past the enormous, double-height living space to the wellness area for a little self-indulgence after a hard day on the snow. There's time for a spell in the sauna and the steam room before dinner, or a soak in the outdoor hot tub. You can even have a deep tissue massage or a facial – just ask the butler to book it for you.

Located in the enclave of Domaine des Brame, Chalet Grand Cerf is just a few minutes chauffeured drive to the shops and bars of bustling Meribel. You'll be having so much fun in your alpine pleasure den however, that we wouldn't blame you for not wanting to go out at all.

Your personal chef is on hand to keep the divine gourmet food flowing from the kitchen and the butler will be at your service throughout your stay. Whether you are a group of friends, work colleagues or sharing families, you can't help being wowed by Chalet Grand Cerf.
