

Chalet Ilulissat

Courchevel Village (1550), France

What we love...

We love the terrace with the Nordic bath.

A touch of woodland magic gives this otherwise traditional chalet a unique atmosphere and a relaxed, welcoming feel. Chalet Ilulissat is a luxury ski chalet in Courchevel 1550, with rough-hewn woods cladding the walls and reclaimed natural materials used for the eclectic furniture and furnishings.

In the living area, stylish sofas and lighting create a cosy spot to recuperate after a morning on the slopes. Adjacent to this, separated by the stylish, hanging woodburner, is a relaxed dining space, with mismatched chairs, cow hides and a raw wood table, creating an intimate spot to enjoy long, leisurely meals.

Three individually decorated bedrooms, each with their own very special en-suites, offers all guests a really lovely place to escape to at the end of the day. Each bedroom has its own TV so you always have somewhere private to retreat to.

There's also a cosy TV room, which can be turned into a kids' bedroom and den if needs be, providing a dedicated space for little ones to call their own (and give the grown-ups some much-appreciated peace, too!)

After a long day, a heavenly dip in the heated outdoor swimming pool is just the ticket after hurtling yourself down the slopes.

With as much space to yourself as there is room to socialise, this is a wonderful property for sharing with friends.
