

Chalet Orsini Verbier, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the spa level – a whole floor of this luxury chalet dedicated to pampering.

Eclectic artworks and beautiful antiques are what makes this luxury ski chalet in Verbier a stunning and characterful home-from-home.

Chalet Orsini is a wonderful place to relax after a morning on Verbier's slopes – some of the finest in the world. Whether you're luxuriating in the spa's hammam, enjoying a massage, or simply ensconced on one of the huge sofas in the vaulted living area, warming your toes by the fire with a good book and a glass of something to perk you up from the chalet's wine cellar, there's an atmosphere of sophisticated calm here that makes it impossible not to relax.

While beautifully aged woods, a farmhouse style kitchen and fascinating antiques and artwork bring a sense of the past to this chalet, top-of-the-range technology such as a music system and amazing cinema room add a hefty dollop of modern luxury.

Each of the en-suite bedrooms is individually designed. Some have beds that look straight out onto the mountains when the curtains are thrown back each morning, others have chunky bunks that will appeal to younger snow bunnies and their chums. One even has access to the terrace where the second (oh yes, there are two) hot tub is located – rendered in gorgeous cedar wood, with fabulous views and plenty of room for you and your glass of bubbly.

When you retreat to your room each evening, after a fabulous meal and a few glasses of fine wine, you'll find your covers turned back, because nothing is too much trouble here, and your bed looking oh-so inviting. Sweet dreams... until the smell of bacon and excellent coffee greets you again.

Eating

Your private chef for the week is dedicated to ensuring you are well looked after at this luxury ski chalet, whether that be getting your favourite wine on stand-by, incorporating any special meals into the menu, or simply creating exciting and creative dishes to impress you each evening.

You will wake in the mornings to breakfast being served – a delicious hot option, accompanied by mueslis and cereals, yoghurt, fruit and freshly baked breads and jams.

When you return to your chalet after your morning's skiing, afternoon tea will be ready and waiting for you. Just help yourself to tea and coffee, bread, jams and sweet or savoury home-baked treats if you prefer.

Each evening, kick back and enjoy drinks and canapés while your chef prepares your meal – four courses of gourmet food, including a local Savoyard cheese board. Your meal will be accompanied by specially selected house wines, as well as complimentary beers and after-dinner spirits if you like.

Kids

This is a great choice for a group travelling with children of varying ages. Two bunk rooms (one sleeping four and one sleeping three) mean older children can have a space to call their own, while younger ones won't be disturbed by those going to bed later.

There's plenty to keep kids amused in this luxury chalet with cinema room and games room. The games room, with its own TV snug and pool table, is right next door to the spa, so while you're having some me-time, the kids can have some 'them-time'.

For younger ones, your chef will be happy to cook an earlier children's tea, meaning the grown-ups can completely relax in the evenings and enjoy a more leisurely meal.

Location

Chalet Orsini is perched high up on the mountain overlooking Verbier. It's a five-minute chauffeured drive to the centre of Verbier, two minutes to the Savoleyre lift and seven to the Medran.

The nearest international airport; Geneva is a 2h drive away and the closest regional airport at Sion, just 61km from Verbier, is ideal for those with access to a private jet, though some commercial airlines do fly into Sion.
