

Chalet de la Cloche

Tignes les Brévières, France

What we love...

We love splashing about in the outdoor hot tub under the stars and then mixing cocktails at the chalet's bar.

Nestled down the mountain in peaceful Tignes Les Brévières, Chalet de la Cloche is a super-stylish home from home with fabulous views of the authentic village surrounds and soaring mountains above.

Traditional wood and a cosy fire meet striking modern and plush interior design in this spacious, welcoming property. Think deep sofas and shaggy rugs, trendy wallpaper and chunky candlesticks, chic slate bathrooms and huge, dive-into beds piled high with cushions.

On the top floor, one expansive living space caters for every moment: snoozing next to the roaring fire after tea and cake. Gaping at the panoramic views from the balcony with a glass of Champagne before dinner.

Sitting down for a 4-course feast with fine wine. Playing mixologist at the fully-stocked bar, inventing new cocktails after dark...

Sleeping up to 12 people across the main chalet and with the option of an additional 4-person apartment, you can really entertain in style here. Those for whom pampering is as important as piste-bashing will love the abundant L'Occitane bathroom products, swim spa and steam room on the ground floor, and the hot tub on the deck under the stars.

And whilst Tignes Les Brévières is set down the mountain from the rest of Tignes, the secluded chalet location is still within 2 minutes of the nearest lift that takes you up the mountain for access to the superb Espace Killy ski area. Ideal for those wanting action-packed days and peaceful nights.

Eating

Having previously worked at Claridges, The chef at Chalet de la Cloche is highly experienced and ready to tailor the menu to your exact requirements – whether you'd like gastro pub grub or 5-star dining.

However you'd like mealtimes to work, your attentive staff will work around you completely. If you want a pile of pancakes for breakfast to fuel you for the slopes, they will be served up at whatever time you'd like. If you want to arrange high tea for little ones while you stay out for après-ski, we can arrange for a nanny to be on hand to help with this.

You'll enjoy pre-dinner drinks and nibbles around the fire, and 4-course evening meals rustled up in the professional kitchen using the finest local ingredients, and served with fine wines. When it comes to food and drink, nothing is too much trouble.

Kids

Young children will love splashing about in the outdoor hot tub and the indoor pool. There are also plenty of games provided, and when they need some quiet time, the plasma TV by the fire and extensive DVD collection beckon.

Mealtimes are completely flexible – so you can choose to eat with your children, or ask the chef to provide a high tea.

We can also arrange babysitting if you'd like, as well as English-speaking nannies. Ski lessons and other activities can also be arranged by the chalet staff.

High chairs and cots can be provided on request, as well as any extras – from nappies to nighttime stories.

Location

Chalet de la Cloche is located in Tignes les Brévières, one of Tignes' satellite hamlets further down the mountain than the rest of the resort.

Blissfully quiet away from the lively centre, you're still just 100m from the piste, and a 2-minute walk from the nursery slopes and the nearest lift that whisks you up to the Espace Killy ski area.
