

Chamois Lodge

St Martin de Belleville, France

What we love...

De-stressing in the outdoor hot tub with majestic views of the mountains.

Chamois Lodge is a beautiful, new property where natural, contemporary style is given a twist of 'hunting-lodge chic'! Miniature stag heads and cow hides adorn the walls and there are piles of faux fur throws and cushions for you to make yourself comfy with.

The double-height living area is a fantastic space to spend quality time with your friends or family over a few drinks by the fire. Simply stunning views through the large windows provide the perfect backdrop for a social gathering.

Children will be happily (and, more to the point, quietly) entertained in the TV snug and playroom, which is kitted out with DVDs, games and books for them.

At night, you'll sleep like a baby in the luxury bedrooms, which all have pocket-sprung mattresses and Egyptian cotton bed linen. Two of the bedrooms have access to a balcony or terrace and all enjoy views of the mountains.

On the ground floor terrace is an outdoor spa with relaxation area and a hot tub where you can feel your worries float away as you relax and take in the mountain views.

This exclusive property feels like a real 'get away from it all' retreat, yet you are only a few chauffeur-driven minutes from the centre and the ski lifts, making it a really idyllic location.

Eating

After your day's skiing, you'll come back to the welcoming sight of afternoon tea waiting for you. Again, a different cake, bake or pud will surprise you every day.

In the evenings, your private chef will serve a gourmet 4 course feast on five nights, to follow canapés and aperitifs in the living area with the glow of the open fire in the background and a Savoyard dinner on one evening.

If you have any likes, dislikes or requests your chef will be happy to incorporate them to ensure that each day's menu is a delight for everyone in your party, whether that's good old British favourites or steak and frites.

Kids

Children are given a warm welcome at Chamois Lodge and the staff do all they can to make life easier for those travelling with children. Items such as cots and highchairs can be arranged as well as nannies and babysitters.

The main family suite has a gorgeous bunk room to sleep three with chunky, rustic wood bunks that will really appeal to kids.

They're bound to love the snug and play room with TV and DVD player and collection of books, games and DVDs. And you're bound to love kicking back with some drinks and canapés by the fire while they're kept entertained.

Staff are on hand to help the children get into their ski boots in the first thing and your chef will be pleased to rustle up a special kids' tea in the early evenings so you can enjoy your own meal post bedtime.
