

Tagomago Private Island Ibiza, Spain

What we love...

We love the dedicated sunrise and sunset chill-out areas. Watching the sun come up over your own island is an experience not to be beaten.

For a combination of total peace and the height of luxury, a break on an island all to yourselves is going to tick all the boxes. This luxury villa on the private island of Tagomago, just off Ibiza, offers the best of both worlds – a mere few minutes by boat to all the beaches, bustle and nightlife of Ibiza, but once you're back across the water you're ensconced in your own private paradise.

Tagomago Island is a wonderful spot for nature-lovers, with lots of birds and other wildlife to spot in the nature reserve. Walkers will enjoy wandering up to the romantic lighthouse of an evening, too. A network of pretty paths criss-crosses the island, so you can happily meander for hours all over it, discovering little coves and hideaways.

For those in search of a few thrills and spills, all manner of watersports can be arranged in the waters off the island, from jet-skiing to snorkelling, and there is a Mangusta 108 yacht available to charter.

Back at the villa, while away the afternoons relaxing in the sauna and outdoor Jacuzzi, or doing a few lengths of the pool. The villa has been created for you to enjoy luxury outdoor living, surrounded by terraces with areas for you to relax and take in the views. And the interior has been carefully designed to be able to compete with the wonderful views outside.

Stylish and contemporary furniture and simple, luxurious furnishings create a relaxed but stunning setting, and every way you turn, you'll catch glimpses of the impressive views of the ocean and island of Ibiza beyond through the floor-to-ceiling windows.

Every detail is taken care of, with top-of-the-range entertainment systems and even a home cinema, so that once the sun goes down you can cosy up inside, order drinks from your dedicated team of staff and sit back and relax into the night. Your private chef will rustle up delicious meals from breakfast, to afternoon tea and a 4-course evening meal.

We certainly can't think of anywhere nicer to be shipwrecked.
