

Villa Camille Capri, Italy

What we love...

The private outdoor Jacuzzi and sun deck, jutting over the island's shoreline – your own exclusive slice of Capri seafront.

When sourcing the ideal luxury villa in Capri, location is everything. You couldn't find a more perfectly placed property than Villa Camille. Standing in splendour, on Capri's majestic waterfront, it is the only villa on the island with its own private sea access and boat dock, affording you the ultimate in discreet exclusivity on a luxury villa holiday.

Built over the ruins of a Roman palace dating back to the 18th century, this luxury villa has hosted many famous names. Whilst staying here during the 19th century, world-famous composer Bizet was so inspired by the sounds of the sea that he wrote his renowned opera, Carmen.

Villa Camille passed to Countess Mona Strader Bismarck in the 20th century. A leading light in fashionable society, she was also a keen gardener and created the lush terraces, English-style gardens and rose covered pergolas.

The complex consists of two connecting buildings over two levels. Marble floors, vaulted ceilings and modern pieces of sculpture juxtaposed with crystal lamps, antique furniture and historic paintings lend this luxury villa a sense of splendour.

Relax with an aperitif on the living room's comfy sofas, tinkle on the ivories of the villa's grand piano, or drift onto the terrace for stunning vistas of this famous island.

With views of the Peninsula of Sorrento, Mount Vesuvius, the Bay of Naples and the port of Marina Grande, you won't fail to be inspired on your luxury villa holiday at Villa Camille.

Soak up the Capri sunshine on loungers dotted conveniently around the beautiful gardens, on the sundeck, in the swimming pool or in the unique seafront Jacuzzi at this luxury villa. At meal times, congregate with your party in the ambient dining area – the ideal spot for a feast of Italian delicacies created by your chef.

Eating

A host of culinary delights await you on Capri and your chef at this luxury villa will ensure that your party's tastes are catered for. During your meals, which can be served in the villa's grand dining area or alfresco on the sun deck, you'll sample home grown ingredients, picked from this luxury villa's well-stocked garden, offering guests the best of the season's fresh vegetables, tomatoes, eggplants, courgettes, fresh herbs, basil, and peppers – all matured naturally in the Mediterranean sun.

Pick from pasta dishes, creamy risottos and homemade desserts, all washed down with glasses of zesty Capri Rosso, Capri Bianco and ice-cold Limoncello.

Continental breakfast will be served daily during your stay at this luxury villa and your chef will then prepare either lunch or dinner – the choice is yours. This leaves you to sample the local restaurants in of Capri for one meal per day, though if you prefer not to leave your spot in the sunshine at your luxury villa, additional meals can be arranged on request.
