

Villa Cassara Tuscany, Italy

What we love...

We love the infinity swimming pool, surrounded by lush vineyards.

History and tradition lovingly brought back to life. That was the inspiration behind this stunning luxury villa on the stunning Il Borro estate. This luxury villa in Tuscany has been carefully designed to retain the villa's original character. Floors, ceilings and beams have all been restored in traditional Tuscan style and the decor is beautifully conceived in ochres and deep reds, which bring a warm, rustic style to the otherwise neutral palette.

In the bedrooms, soft quilts and plump pillows ensure you'll enjoy a restful night in the airy and peaceful rooms. Each of the bedrooms has a stunning bathroom and throughout the property, in the top-of-the-range kitchen and welcoming living areas, every care has been taken to provide the best, the most comfortable, the most appealing of everything.

Outside, there is a lovely infinity swimming pool and private gardens that bring a real sense of privacy. As you sink into the infinity pool, with nothing in view but endless vineyards, you will totally relax.

The housekeeping staff will ensure that everything is just the way you like it, and the concierge service are on hand to offer their expert advice and make bookings for your group. Guests also benefit from being able to use all of the facilities on the enormous and exclusive Il Borro estate in which Villa Cassara stands.

Whether your weakness is food and wine, golf and tennis or simply some serious pampering, you'll find something to make your holiday special here under the Tuscan sun.

Eating

A continental breakfast is included in your stay at this luxury villa and you have the option to have it in the Tuscan Bistro on the estate or if you prefer it can be delivered to your villa each morning so that you can enjoy your morning coffee and croissants from the wonderful terrace with beautiful countryside views.

There are several restaurants on the Il Borro Estate for you to visit and enjoy a flavour of the local food and wines.

The flagship restaurant, the 'Osteria del Borro' serves traditional Tuscan cuisine in a unique, contemporary setting. Below this is the Tuscan Bistro, the ideal spot for breakfast or an informal lunch, and serving seasonal ingredients, locally sourced. There is also a large table for tastings and a wonderful open-view cellar. Then there is the Vin Cafe where you might like to enjoy an aperitif or a few drinks after dinner. It also serves lunch.

If you would prefer to dine in the comfort and privacy of your own luxury villa, you also have the option to hire a private chef, whether your celebrating a special occasion or wish to have their services throughout your stay.

Kids

Children will love the infinity pool at the villa and will enjoy the vast amounts of outdoor space to run round in.

The horses on the estate are also used for gymkhana events that children who can ride may take part in, as well as being used for 'getting to know horses' classes for those who are beginners.
