

Villa Palmera Marbella, Spain

What we love...

We love the unique, enormous swimming pool at Villa Palmera with its underwater seats and a tropical island in the middle. With its prime location, sophisticated décor and fabulous views, this luxury villa is a chilled out corner of paradise.

Enjoy a refreshing cocktail on the shaded terrace overlooking your spectacular pool, surrounded by fragrant jasmine plants and views over undulating Spanish countryside. What could be better? Villa Palmera looks as if it has been here forever, set in luscious private grounds in the hills above Marbella and Puerto Banus, but in fact, this elegant Spanish mansion, with its terracotta coloured walls and traditional features, is newly built.

Villa Palmera occupies a prime position on the exclusive gated development of El Madronal, offering seclusion and privacy, yet only minutes from the action. Decorated and furnished in lavish style, it just oozes sophistication and serenity.

Villa Palmera sleeps up to 14 people with room for up to 21 on luxury sofa beds and makes a beautiful venue for entertaining and special events all year round. If you love the great outdoors, there are mountain bikes at the villa, water sports on the nearby beaches, and everything from 4x4 safaris to horse riding.

If you prefer to just chill out, Villa Palmera has a gorgeous 20m pool, complete with a tropical island, underwater seating and a children's end, perfect for families. A soothing, heated Jacuzzi with Costa del Sol sunset views seats up to 10 people, ideal for relaxing in after a spell in the gym. Kids or big kids alike will love the football, cricket and badminton sets available for some outdoor fun, which you can take to the beaches that are only a 10 minute drive away. For entertainment closer to home, the table tennis invites you for tournaments galore.

And, as you would expect, the service is first class too. Whether you want solicitous attention or magnificent solitude – it's up to you. Just choose from a range of add-on services to create your perfect scenario. Don't want to cook? Just tell us which days you would like a private chef to prepare delicious meals. Hate shopping for food? We can arrange pre-stocking and grocery deliveries to Villa Palmera so you don't have to waste time on tiresome chores. Everything from airport transfers and car hire to golfing packages and personalised itineraries can be arranged by the villa concierge service.

Kids

With a fabulous swimming pool, a table tennis table and gadgets galore, Villa Palmera is an ideal place for a family holiday. Set within beautifully landscaped grounds, secured by gates, this luxury villa is a haven for adventurous children.

You can send the kids out to play on the villa's mountain bikes, racing round the three kilometres of private road within the exclusive development. Or just lie back on a sun lounger and relax as they splash around the 20m freeform pool, clambering over the tropical island. And in the evenings the children have access to a movie library of over 2000 favourites.

The local area is brimming with exciting activities for children, and there are things to do all year round. The sandy beaches are always a hit with the kids, and there are plenty of water parks, the Selwo safari park and boat trips to keep little ones entertained. If you need childcare services during your stay, such as a private nanny or babysitting services, just ask.
