

Villa Riou

Provence, France

What we love...

We love the amazing views out over the Med – on a clear day you can see to Corsica.

This bijou but beautiful luxury villa on the Côte d’Azur makes for a perfect romantic hideaway. High up on a hill, surrounded by woods and olive groves, Villa Riou has wonderful views over the chateau and out to sea.

The private terrace was just made for good books and sundown drinks, and if the evening air turns chilly you can head inside to the elegantly pretty living room.

Inside, a marble bathroom has its own hammam-style steam shower, or for top-to-toe pampering, you can pop over to the hotel, in the same grounds, to use the luxury spa there. The hotel also provides 24-hour room service so you can enjoy haute cuisine on your own private terrace, but if going out for the evening appeals, the hotel’s two wonderful restaurants are just a short hop away via the complimentary 24-hour shuttle service.

While perfectly secluded this luxury villa has use of all the facilities of the stunning spa hotel nearby, as well as access to its private stretch of beach in Cap d’Antibes, giving you the best of both worlds.
