What we love...

The ambient outdoor dining area, with its stunning iron and tile topped table – the ideal spot for al fresco Caprese-style feasts.

La bella vita is evident throughout this historic luxury villa in Capri. Contemporary designer chic with more than a dash of old school charm at Villa Rubio makes it the ideal choice for your next luxury villa holiday in Capri.

Built in the late 18th century by one of Capri's most established families, this luxury villa with a swimming pool is still run by descendants of the original owners. Its considerable charms have been enhanced for the 21st century, yet it still features beautiful pieces to admire from a large Venetian mirror to the crystal chandelier that hangs above the dining room table, bringing a touch of glamour to your luxury villa holiday.

Villa Rubio overlooks Certosa di San Giacomo and Marina Piccola, with breathtaking views of Capri and Monte Solaro, which you can enjoy, cocktail in hand, from the loungers arranged around the peaceful rooftop terrace.

Surrounded by lush gardens, this luxury villa is a short stroll from the exclusive boutiques and nightspots of Capri. Away from the cosmopolitan crowds, Villa Rubio provides the perfect bolt hole for recharging body and soul.

In this luxury villa's well-stocked kitchen, your private chef will create meals using the best local produce. On balmy Capri evenings, the shaded outdoor dining area is the perfect place for al fresco feasts of fresh pizza and roasted meat, prepared in the classic Caprese-style oven. Fully sated, why not wind down in the villa's living area which boasts a cosy love seat.

Eating

Your personal chef will be on hand to create a daily lunch or dinner of local delicacies and should you wish a daily buffet breakfast can be arranged at your request.

Culinary delights awaiting you in Capri include the island's most famous dish, ravioli capresi – light pasta parcels filled with creamy parmigiano and caciotta cheese and enriched with tomato and basil sauce.

Seafood is also a huge deal on the island. Be sure to order pezzogna (red seabream) on your luxury villa holiday, which is caught along the shores of Capri.

If you have room for more, why not end your meal with a slice of torta caprese, a local chocolate and almond cake traditionally served with a short glass of iced limoncello?
