

Alpaga Chalet Megeve, France

What we love...

The views of Mont Blanc from the balconies.

Enjoy being master of your own domain, but with all the services on hand that a top hotel has to offer. Alpaga is a traditional-style chalet, built and furnished to luxurious standards.

Light and airy modern interiors create the perfect shared spaces for a holiday with family or friends. In the daytime, make the most of the views of Mont Blanc by enjoying coffee on the generously sized patios and balconies or, in the evenings cosy up on one of the squashy sofas or by the fire with a drink in your hand and chat into the small hours.

In addition to the sociable living areas, there is also an office/library area where you may work or just curl up with a book and some peace and quiet.

The cocoon-like bedrooms are a sight for sore eyes after a day on the slopes. Luxury bath products and bed linens make bedtime a treat.

You're only five minutes' drive from the town centre at Alpaga, so are perfectly placed to enjoy the local area. A complimentary in-resort shuttle service run by the hotel will whisk you directly to the slopes, too, so you can make the most of your skiing time.

Back at the chalet, restore harmony to slopes-weary limbs by popping into the La Colline spa at the hotel. Relax among the massage jets in the swimming pool, or enjoy a steam bath or aromatherapy massage in the afternoons. Total bliss.

Alpaga Chalet

Rooms

Chalet Alpaga sleeps up to 12 people in 6 bedrooms plus one child.

There are 6 double bedrooms all with en-suite bathrooms, three of which can be split into twins and a single room for a child on the second floor.

Eating

Whether you want good honest ski fodder in a relaxed environment or something very upmarket, you can have it, literally on a plate, at Alpaga.

Onyx, is the Alpaga hotel's bar come restaurant, in which you can enjoy Savoyard classics such as steak and fondue with a glass or three of wine and while away a few hours.

However, you won't want to miss out on dining in La Table de l'Alpaga at least once. With a Michelin star, this restaurant is something special. The head chef has created a menu to impress and an evening here could be the highlight of your luxury ski holiday.

A buffet breakfast served at the hotel is included in your stay at this luxury ski chalet.

Kids

The Smallable Kids' Club runs daily from 4pm to 8pm and, during school holidays, there is a child concierge to arrange activities for your little ones and ensure everything is to their liking. Children will also find lots of fun in the heated pool in the spa and a private garden means there is somewhere enclosed for them to let off steam outside.

A dedicated children's room with two cosy beds under the eaves, will really appeal to younger guests. We're willing to bet they'll be keener than usual to get to bed!

Cots and highchairs are available on request to enable you to travel lighter and nannies and babysitters can be arranged on request.

Location

Alpaga chalet is five minutes' drive from the centre of charming Megeve and the Chamois ski lift and guests have access to the complimentary in-resort shuttle service run by the hotel.

The nearest airports are Geneva which is 1 hour away, whilst Lyon is a 2 hour drive away.
