

Bühlhof Penthouse

Lech, Austria

What we love...

We love the beautiful wellness area with sauna, hot tub and relaxation space.

Having recently undergone a complete renovation and finished to the highest specifications for the 2019/20 winter season, Bühlhof Penthouse offers a welcoming space with wonderful spa facilities, ticking all the right boxes for a luxury ski holiday in Lech.

With its traditionally beautiful exterior, this family friendly ski chalet is full of surprises when you step inside, with sleek, chic decor and top-of-the-range gadgetry, from the Apple TV in the snug to the kitchen kitted out to professional standards.

Spread over two floors, there's plenty of room for everyone to do their own thing in this spacious apartment, whether that's enjoying the view out on the terraces, or soaking alone in the hot tub with a book and a glass of wine. The bedrooms are all beautifully designed so that each is a peaceful haven of its own, with en-suite bathroom, fluffy robes and slippers, so there's always somewhere quiet to escape to.

But for those times when you want to get together, whether that's for a big celebration or simply catching up with good friends at the end of the day (and we're sure there will be plenty of those times) Bühlhof Penthouse is ideally set up. There's a TV snug, perfect for getting cosy under blankets with friends and a film, and a stunning bar area, sociably located between the dining room and kitchen, to seat six for après ski cocktails, pre-dinner bubbly or whatever tipples tickles your fancy. The open-plan kitchen is designed to be a real heart to the property with plenty of space for conversation and celebration, or take your drinks into the cosy dining room where armchairs are gathered round the large fireplace, just waiting for you to sink into them and share your day's adventures.

After dinner each evening, take your digestifs into the lounge to sprawl on the U-shaped sofa and continue the conversation long into the evening. Or maybe take your drinks out onto the terrace to take some deep breaths, take time to appreciate the majesty of that stunning view and watch the lights twinkling over Lech.
