

Chalet Bioley Verbier

What we love...

The wonderful living area with bar, stone fireplace and hidden flatscreen TV that appears at the touch of a button.

As stylish as it is comfortable, this luxury Verbier chalet is a dream base for exploring the surrounding slopes.

Chalet Bioley is perfectly placed, nestled just moments from the centre of town and also close to both the beginners Moulins slopes as well as the Le Rouge piste, so whatever level of skiing you're looking for there's something for everyone.

The property has been thoughtfully decorated with statement pieces of furniture, clever lighting and splashes of bold colour, that give it its unique style. The communal living spaces are bathed in light, with all the property's main windows and balconies facing south. After an exhausting day on the slopes, the living and dining rooms are a treat to come home to. Lounge on the L-shaped sofa in front of the roaring fire (at the click of a button a flatscreen TV appears as if by magic!), take a seat on the comfy green velvet stools at the bar and have your host whip you up a warming drink, or take a book out to the hot tub and fire pit and just take in that amazing view. But it's equally a great space for entertaining too. Your host will be delighted to prepare cocktails for your guests, so you can gather around the huge stone fireplace or at the bar and make the most of the chalet's up-to-the-minute Tech, which includes Bluetooth technology that allows you to stream your own playlists to the integrated sound system.

Six evenings a week, dinner is served at the generous dining table, which seats 12 and has spectacular mountain views – you'll never want for a conversation starter over your meal.

Each of the luxury bedrooms in the chalet is designed with your maximum comfort in mind. But the icing on the cake at this chalet is surely the master suite, which takes up the whole of the top floor with its walk-in wardrobe, spa style bathroom and huge bath. Both the king-size bed and the stylish seating area look out onto the mountains. We can't think of a better view to wake up to.

Eating

The staff are serious about keeping you well fed here at Chalet Bioley. You'll wake to the aroma of breakfast wafting through the chalet – cooked specials as well as fresh bread and pastries from the local bakery, charcuterie and local cheeses, and yoghurts from the local dairy. Everything is sourced as close by as possible.

When you return from your skiing day you'll find a hearty afternoon tea waiting for you. If you don't have a sweet tooth, savoury options instead of the homemade cakes and bakes can be arranged.

In the evening, pre-dinner canapes are served with champagne while your chef prepares three delicious courses followed by a local cheeseboard.

House wines are served with dinner and you'll also find complimentary beers, soft drinks and a drinks tray of spirits waiting for you. If you require any specific wines, your concierge will be only too happy to arrange that for you before your arrival. Any likes, dislikes and dietary needs can also be discussed in advance.
