

Chalet Chez Bugi St. Martin de Belleville

What we love...

We love the outdoor terrace, with mountain views, outdoor hot tub and seating area from which to enjoy them...

Welcoming, modern style in a wonderful setting, this luxury ski chalet in St Martin de Belleville is a wonderful base from which to enjoy all a luxury ski holiday has to offer, from world-class skiing (obviously) to top notch food and complete relaxation.

The chalet is set in a ski-in/ski-out position, giving you access to the very best of the renowned Three Valleys ski area and a gondola that can whisk you up to the mountains within minutes. Snow bunnies can get straight out on the snow each morning and ski all the way back to their door when they're ready to collapse in front of the fire with a glass of bubbly.

The chalet itself is beautifully decorated in a modern rustic style with a palette of beautiful neutrals and richly textured fabrics to bring a truly cosy feel. From each faux fur throw to every cotton pillowcase, only the most sumptuous materials have been chosen for Chez Bugi.

The open-plan sitting space has at its heart a spectacular fireplace and capacious corner sofa that just makes you want to stretch out and sigh. Canapés are served here each evening while you catch up with the rest of your party. A flatscreen TV with satellite and DVD library as well as stacks of board games makes this a very cosy space to kick back in after a day out on the mountains of the Three Valleys.

Nearby is a sociable dining area with impossibly comfy chairs and overlooked by a statement chandelier, where you and your party will enjoy fabulous meals prepared by your chef long into the evenings.

The dining space opens out onto the outdoor terrace, home to a fabulous seating area with views out onto the mountains, as well as a hot tub - the perfect spot to escape to with a drink and sink into the bubbles to ease slopes-weary legs after a long day.

Then it's off to luxe bedrooms for a night of deep sleep. Wood clad walls, crisp white linens and textured cushions and throws bring a contemporary Alpine style to the sleeping quarters at Chalet Chez Bugi and a promise of sweet, snowy dreams all night long.

Eating

To ensure your complete relaxation here, a personal chef will be on hand to cater to your entire party's needs.

Each morning, a range of cereals, fruit, porridge, yoghurt, freshly baked artisan breads and pastries are ready and waiting for you. On five mornings, a hot special is available - anything from American pancakes with bacon and maple syrup, to eggs benedict - you can discuss options with your chef beforehand.

When you return from the slopes, afternoon tea is ready and waiting, although don't overindulge too much as dinner here is always a treat.

Canapés and aperitifs at the fireside kickstart the evening, before dinner is served. The focus here is on wonderful food with great flavours and your chef will be pleased to tailor menus to your party's particular likes and dislikes. Dinner is always rounded off with a French cheeseboard and coffee and petit fours. Carefully chosen premium wines accompany each course.

On one evening, your chef will serve a traditional Savoyard meal.
