

Chalet Diana St. Martin de Belleville

What we love...

We love the beautiful, contemporary living space with a floating fireplace at its heart - perfect for gathering round to warm yourselves through in the afternoons.

Ski bunnies who enjoy the finer things in life will love this unique, luxury ski chalet in St Martin de Belleville.

Located in a ski-in/ski-out location in the exclusive Casablanca area and designed with every care and attention, Chalet Diana is a very stylish and cosy home from home for a group of friends or family get together.

The double-height living room, decorated in a palette of neutral greys and steel has pops of ochre to bring the scheme to life and classic but contemporary furniture pieces that bring an understated elegance to the room. Collapse in the smart, capacious armchairs to enjoy the view over tea and cakes in the afternoons or gather round that fabulous floating fireplace with the rest of your party in the evening and catch up on all the adventures everyone has had during the day.

Adjacent, there's a sophisticated dining area that seats 12 in comfy chairs you'll be happy to linger in long into the evening, chatting over excellent food and fine wines under the twinkling lights. Indeed, the whole living space is completely transformed in the evening from a light and airy space to a cosy retreat, sparkling with candlelight.

On afternoons when you're home from the slopes, hide away in the fabulous library to curl up with a book, retreat down to the sauna to warm yourself through or bubble away in the outdoor Jacuzzi on the terrace. However you choose to relax you'll find it easy here.

When night falls, you'll be only too pleased to hunker down in the contemporary and cosy bedrooms, each with UK TV and stylish spa-style bathrooms that will make all your ablutions a pleasure. Falling into the comfy beds at Chalet Diana, you're guaranteed to have sweet dreams and wake ready for anything the next morning... which is just as well. You have the whole of the Three Valleys on your very doorstep - arguably the world's best skiing area. Get your skis on fast and you could be first out on the powder.

Eating

Everyone is kept well fed and watered at Chalet Diana. The chalet's dedicated chef is on hand from first thing in the morning when he serves up a delicious breakfast to set you up for a day on the slopes, through to when the coffees come out after dinner.

In the afternoons, tea, coffee and cakes are served when you return from the slopes and a little later pre-dinner cocktails and canapes appear for you to enjoy while your chef prepares your evening meal.

Only the best quality ingredients and fine wines are served, with something to tempt everyone on the menu. There's even a special children's menu for any younger members of your party to enjoy. House wines flow all week and there's an open bar for spirits and soft drinks, too.

On staff day off, continental breakfast and afternoon tea will be provided but not served. Your chalet staff will also be delighted to recommend and help book a restaurant for dinner.

Chalet Diana
