

Chalet Hermine Blanche

Le Fornet, Val d'Isere

What we love...

We love the relaxing spa with its hammam, sauna and indoor Jacuzzi, as well as massage room for relaxing treatments and an Italian shower to cool off before you go back upstairs.

A contemporary, cosy bolthole for a group of friends or family, close to some of the world's best slopes? It ticks a lot of boxes for a luxury ski holiday. Here's a bit more about Chalet Hermine Blanche...

This luxury ski chalet is an ideal base for guests wanting a week in the mountains with no ties. The property is self-catered (though a private chef service can be arranged if you prefer), so you can come and go as you please, enjoying local restaurants as you wish and making the most of the professional-style kitchen and gadgetry on nights at home. Sit up at the kitchen bar and socialise with whoever is doing dinner and then enjoy convivial meals long into the evening at the sociable and cosy dining area.

The shared spaces here provide plenty of space for everyone to kick back. Capacious, boxy sofas stretch out in front of the huge floor-to-ceiling windows with mountain views, close to the roaring fire. Modern-rustic style gives the communal spaces a really relaxing feel, with warm woods and textural stone bringing a laid-back atmosphere. There are plenty of places to curl up with a book alone, as well as lots to keep you busy.

The huge TV and sound system make movie nights together a real pleasure and, after a long day on the slopes, there's nothing like a few hours spent down in the spa. Soak in the Jacuzzi and then warm your muscles in the hammam and sauna, or perhaps indulge in a massage to soothe any slopes-weary limbs in the afternoons.

In the evenings, when you come back from a night exploring Le Fornet or Val d'Isere, take a glass of something bubbly out onto the terrace and either hop in the outdoor Nordic bath or just enjoy the starscape. When you retire to bed it's to luxury bedrooms and en-suite bathrooms, each designed with boutique hotel chic in mind. There's no better recipe for sweet dreams.

Eating

This luxury self-catering chalet has a fully-fitted kitchen with everything you could want, including a Nespresso coffee machine and wine fridge, so you'll have all you need to whip up delicious meals for yourselves.

You're sure to want to make the most of Val d'Isere's wonderful restaurant scene while you're here, too. We love La Fruitiere and L'Atelier Edmond in particular.

If you wish to organise a private chef for the week, or just for special occasions, this can also be arranged.

Chalet Hermine Blanche

Kids

This luxury family-friendly ski chalet is a great choice for a group of families holidaying together. The children's bunk bedroom sleeps six kids in chunky wooden bunks with plenty of space to play and a wonderful kids' bathroom with sinks at various heights.

Chalet Hermine Blanche has a brilliant ski room, which makes skiing en famille much easier, as you can simply peel off all your ski gear, throw your boots on the warmers and be upstairs enjoying warm drinks minutes after tramping back from the slopes.

Nannies and babysitters can be arranged on request.
