Pettneu (St. Anton), Austria

What we love...

We love the chalet location, set in the picturesque village of Pettneu and just moments from the vibrant resort of St Anton.

Need a dose of pure pleasure and indulgence? Then Chalet Illimani could be just the ticket. This high-end, self-catered luxury ski chalet is a secluded retreat within striking distance of the ebullient resort of St Anton.

Chalet Illimani is in the little mountain village of Pettneu – complete with local pistes, bars and restaurants. With 400m sq of living space and five bedrooms, Chalet Illimani is a generously proportioned and elegant luxury mountain home, featuring traditional Tyrolean touches as well as up-to-the-minute technical features. Think big, light-filled hallways, exposed beams and elegant décor in a relaxing neutral palette. The minute you step over the threshold, Chalet Illimani wraps you in a soft blanket of pleasure.

After a hard day on the piste, catch up with friends and family around the wood burning fire. Alternatively, you can relax and recharge in the spa area, situated on the lower ground floor of the chalet. There is a sauna comfortably seating six, a cold water bucket shower and a relaxation area with large flat screen TV. Also located on this floor is the games room with a table tennis table to keep younger members busy and out of trouble.

Kids

Chalet Illimani makes a wonderful mountain retreat for families. The nearby local pistes might be perfect for little ones to perfect their snowploughs, and the local café is bound to serve delicious hot chocolate to banish any chills.

Families can really spread out in the comfort of this spacious luxury chalet. Down in the basement is a dedicated games room set up for table tennis whilst parents can relax in the spa area next door. There is also a small TV room near the main living room, so if the children want to watch a film after dinner, they can do their own thing without being too far away.

If they ask to go to bed suspiciously early, it may be because they know how much fun it is to sleep in the quad bunk room with a play area.

Cots and baby equipment can also be provided for younger members.
