

Chalet Inoko Val d'Isere, France

What we love...

We love the wonderful spa area with pool, sauna and outdoor hot tub.

Naturally beautiful and perched high up in the mountains surrounded by alpine woodland, this luxury ski chalet is the perfect spot from which to enjoy Val d'Isere.

With six stunning bedrooms, each with a luxury en-suite bathroom, there's plenty of space for every member of your party to relax and find a little room for themselves.

The heart of the chalet however must be the stunning double-height, open-plan living and dining room. Beautifully lit, with floor-to-ceiling glass doors out onto the terrace, a sophisticated dining area and a lounge just made for loafing in; it's the perfect space for a group of friends or family to share.

After a day spent on Val d'Isere's slopes, this luxury ski chalet's spa is ideal for resting aching ski legs.

Warm up in the sauna, before taking a few lengths in the indoor pool or head to the hot tub on the terrace with a glass of bubbly and drink in those alpine views. After dinner, there's no better place to relax than on the oversized sofas in front of the huge TV.

You'll be well looked after at Chalet Inoko, with staff always on hand to top up your drink, fluff your pillows and serve canapés to keep you going until dinner. The focus here is on healthy living, with fresh and contemporary menus offering a refreshing change from traditional chalet fare.

At the end of the evening, take your drink out onto the lovely balcony to enjoy as a nightcap. Sit around and gaze into the firepit, or simply sink into the hot tub and watch the sky get slowly dark amongst the trees.

Eating

Your private chef is always on hand to ensure you are well fed and watered at this luxury ski chalet.

After tea or coffee served in bed each morning you'll be set up with a breakfast to fuel even the most energetic of skiing days. Once you tire of the snow, your driver will whisk you back to the chalet to enjoy afternoon tea and then champagne and canapés around the fire in the evenings, before sitting down to a delicious meal.

Your chef will be happy to prepare whatever sort of cuisine you would prefer, but with the guidance of an in-house nutritionist the chalet's signature menu is that bit healthier than your average ski chalet fare – though equally delicious. The aim is to leave you fired up for your skiing day rather than straining at the seams of your ski jacket.

Your meal will be accompanied by carefully selected wines, and there's also an à la carte wine list you can purchase from. Alternatively choose an aperitif from the open bar with a wonderful selection of Gin and other selected spirits.

Chalet Inoko

Kids

After a morning in the snow, children will enjoy splashing around in the indoor swimming pool at this luxury ski chalet.

When it comes to the evenings, your private chef will prepare an early children's tea for any younger visitors, meaning little ones don't need to be on their best behaviour at dinner time and the grown-ups can enjoy a more leisurely meal post-bedtime.

Nannies and babysitters can be arranged on request.
