

Chalet La Bergerie Val d'Isère, France

What we love...

We love the easy ski-in/ski-out access to the magnificent ski area of Val d'Isère and the spectacular views, framed exquisitely by the huge picture windows at Chalet La Bergerie.

Located in a private enclave above Val d'Isère, La Bergerie is a unique chalet with spectacular views down the Manchet Valley and to the white peaks beyond. It is positioned on the site of an old 'Bergerie' or shepherd's hut, dating back to the 17th century and has been renovated using many of the original features blending traditional wood and stone with modern facilities. It has been elegantly decorated and makes a wonderful cosy retreat to return to at the end of a day on the mountain.

The vaulted ceiling of the open plan sitting room gives a sense of space without losing the warmth of the room created by the open log fire, and complimented by the rich colours and textures of the carefully selected furnishings.

Chalet La Bergerie features four en-suite twin or king size double bedrooms, one of which has a small additional single interconnecting bedroom, ideal for a child or nanny. There is also a fantastic king size master en-suite with access to its own private terrace, plus one further king size ensuite. Every room has an individual sense of style and character.

Whether enjoying a breakfast of your choice or a gourmet dinner, the floor to ceiling windows of La Bergerie offer jaw-dropping vistas. The secluded hot tub and terrace are also an ideal place to watch the sun set over the Roche de Charvet whilst enjoying a well-deserved glass of champagne.

La Bergerie is just a stone's throw from the piste, so it is possible to ski in and out almost from the chalet door. Additionally, guests can enjoy an in-resort driver service from 8am through until 2am, daily. With an immaculate collection of vehicles all equipped with ski racks, the highly trained drivers will be on call to pick you up and drop you off anywhere in resort.

The team of staff will take excellent care of guests during their stay at the chalet. From serving you champagne in the hot tub to arranging your lunch reservations at the best mountain restaurants, no stone is left unturned to make your stay perfect.
