

Chalet Le 1550 Courchevel 1550, France

What we love...

We love the indoor swimming pool, overlooked by a backlit photo wall of the Vanoise Massif - it's like swimming right among the mountains...

Contemporary and quirky, Le 1550 is a luxury ski chalet with a difference. The luxury ski chalet employs stunning design values and beautiful materials to create a bolthole in the snow that feels truly special.

Located in the sought-after Les Brigues area of Courchevel Village, this property is perfectly located for both the centre of town and easy access to the Three Valleys. But, close as it is to all the action, this property is also a wonderful place to escape to and hole up for a week, to make the most of all it has to offer.

The airy hallways opens onto a well-equipped ski room, with everything you need, designed to make day-to-day life completely stress free. On the living floor, the open plan spaces include a comfy seating area, where huge sofas sprawl beside the fire and look straight out onto the mountains, as well as a contemporary but cosy dining room and kitchen. The living spaces open out onto a south-facing terrace that has simply amazing views. Both indoor and outdoor living spaces are perfect spots to catch up with friends and family at the end of the day.

If you were hoping to indulge in as much pampering as you were energetic skiing, Chalet Le 1550 has everything you could hope for, from the sauna, Jacuzzi, massage room and gym through to the fabulous indoor swimming pool, which is overlooked by a backlit photo-mural of the mountain.

Upstairs, in the cosy, wood-clad sleeping quarters, comfy bedrooms and spa-style bathrooms give everyone a place to retreat to at the end of each day.
