

Chalet Leo Verbier, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the stylish living space split into two by a beautiful billiards table.

A stylish residence located right in the heart of the glamorous Verbier, this luxury ski chalet is a fabulous base for anyone wanting to make the most of all this wonderful resort has to offer.

The interior of this penthouse apartment is simply dazzling. Decked out in a contemporary neutral palette with leather and chrome accents and statement lighting, the rooms have a cossetting, luxe feel: no bed is without a faux fur throw to envelope oneself in, no sofa without a pile of plumped cushions ready to let you sink into them.

The rooms are designed for sociable living and entertaining, with a stunning dining area complete with refectory-style table and button-back chairs that encourage you to linger over each meal, enjoying the fine foods and good conversation.

Everyone will find somewhere to make themselves at home in the cosy living room: one part TV snug and one part fireside bolthole, separated by a huge billiards table in the middle. There's room for everyone to seek out a little peace and quiet of their own but it's also a truly sociable space, ideal for gatherings and parties, with panoramic mountain views providing all the artwork you could wish for and staff always on hand to ensure everything is exactly how you want it.

At the end of a busy day at Chalet Leo you'll be more than happy to retire to the beautiful bedrooms. Two have hammam showers to help you soothe any aching limbs from long skiing days. All have their own unique style, from private dressing rooms to freestanding tubs. Sink into luxury duvets and comfy mattresses knowing nothing will wake you until the delicious aroma of breakfast arrives in the morning.

Eating

A private chef will ensure every meal is one to look forward to and that you are always well fed throughout your stay. The chef only uses the finest organic, seasonal ingredients, sourced locally wherever possible.

You'll talk to your chef beforehand about your likes, dislikes and any dietary requirements so that he can go away and create a bespoke menu tailored perfectly to your party.

Each morning you'll wake to an a la carte breakfast to set you up nicely for a day's skiing. When you return from the slopes, afternoon tea is laid out ready with freshly baked treats to restore your energies. In the evenings, your chef will put together a gourmet three-course meal so you can sit around the table with friends enjoying fine food and wines long into the night.

Your chef can also arrange a dedicated kids' menu, filled with homemade treats to tempt tiny palates.

Chalet Leo

Kids

Younger visitors get a warm welcome at Chalet Leo. This luxury, family friendly ski chalet in Verbier is an ideal base for your ski holiday with ski schools nearby and lots in the chalet to help little ones feel at home.

The cosy twin room makes a lovely hideaway for children and several of the main rooms are large enough to take a cot, which you can borrow from the chalet if you wish. Toys are also available to hire if you want to cut down on packing and keep little ones busy with some 'new to them' games they haven't seen before.

Your chef will be happy to design a dedicated children's menu of home-cooked dishes so that kids can eat early and grown-ups are able to relax a little more post-bedtime.
