

Chalet Menor Meribel, France

What we love...

We love the wonderful indoor swimming pool with counter-flow system, surrounded by modern, stone-clad walls.

Cocooned in a pretty little hamlet but with the awesome views of a much bigger location, this luxury ski chalet in Meribel is a real treasure. Chalet Menor is a traditionally conceived chalet but with thoroughly modern fixtures and fittings and a dose of healthful Scandi vibes bringing fun and relaxation to the Savoyard style of this beautiful wood-clad property.

The indoor swimming pool is breathtaking: simple, stylish and relaxing, with floor-to-ceiling windows that look onto the mountain and open right back for a blast of fresh air while you swim.

A few metres into the garden is an adorable little sauna. If you can brave the snow, it's a treat for aching legs and a wonderful place to go to restore body and mind in the afternoons. There's also an outdoor Jacuzzi and fire pit on the terrace, perfect for lounging around and in with a few glasses of bubbly as the sun sets.

The chalet has fabulous terraces with stunning views of the side of the mountain, which can also be enjoyed from the stylish and contemporary dining area nearby.

The cosy open-plan living area is centred on a huge fireplace with stacks of logs always ready to keep the flames licking as you and your guests gather on the capacious sofas to chat, enjoy a drink and catch up on all the events of the day.

The beautiful bedrooms are each just as relaxing as you would expect them to be, with soft, comfy beds and well-appointed bathrooms with a spa feel.

Staff are on hand always through the chalet's concierge service, to ensure that whether you want a restaurant table booking, a massage arranging or a husky ride sorting, it all happens just as you wish.

Eating

Your dedicated host and chef will keep you well fed throughout your stay. A Champagne reception awaits your arrival, setting the tone for the rest of your stay.

To get you fuelled for a busy day, cooked breakfasts are offered on six mornings and a continental spread offered on staff day off. On your return, afternoon tea will be laid out ready for you on six days.

In the evenings, canapés and drinks are served while your chef prepares your evening meal. The focus is on fresh food, imaginatively served. Your dining experience is completely tailored to you; your chef will be delighted to discuss your requirements and create bespoke menus to suit all tastes.

The wine cellar is also stocked with a wonderful selection of a la carte wine and Champagne, available for an additional cost. Guests are of course welcome to bring their own alcoholic beverages and may be subject to a corkage fee.

For staff night off, there are plenty of eateries to explore in Meribel. We love the traditional gourmet restaurant, The Martagone, which serves excellent pan-fried foie gras, steaks, tartiflette and duck salads. Chez Kiki, near the Morel lift is a good choice for people with children as it has an excellent menu for under-tens. Your chalet hosts will of course be more than happy to make further recommendations and bookings.

Kids

Children will enjoy the delightful indoor swimming pool, which is looked over from the kitchen so you can keep one eye on confident swimmers from there. The luxury ski chalet offers plenty of places to play as well as a garden to roam around in better weather.

The four-berth dormitory makes an excellent den for kids to make their own. The chalet also offers a selection of children's toys including sledges, games and books.

Meribel is a great base for a family ski holiday with plenty of slopes for beginner skiers and lots of other activities available for anyone who doesn't wish to ski.

Cots are available on request and the staff can arrange nannies and babysitters if you require them.
