

Chalet Pow Pow Courchevel 1850, France

What we love...

We love the beautifully designed spa area, complete with a swimming pool, Jacuzzi, Hammam and massage treatment room.

You will just love this luxury ski-in/ski-out chalet with wonderful spa facilities in Courchevel 1850.

Chalet Pow Pow lives up to its name with its knocks-you-in-the-face-style and simply astounding mountain views. The vista from your dining table is nothing short of spectacular. There's nothing like towering snowy peaks and craggy rock to make your jaw drop over your bacon and eggs. Good thing, then, that the interiors have almost as much wow factor to live up to that amazing view!

The open-plan living and dining space is decked out with contemporary furniture pieces, nods to industrial-chic style, pops of bright colour and statement lighting. And the roaring fire makes for a fabulous focal point. In the luxury bedrooms, again contemporary comfort and vivid colour pops against a neutral backdrop create stylish but relaxing retreats.

The jewel in Pow Pow's crown, however, must be its entertainment spaces. The spa area is spacious, serene and has everything you could need for a thoroughly pampering afternoon – large swimming pool, Jacuzzi, Hammam, gym and massage treatment room where you can indulge in a much-deserved massage after a few hours on the slopes. Close by is the well-equipped games room with TV, pinball, pool and football table to keep younger guests entertained.

And in case all that's not enough to keep you busy, the chalet also has a private cinema room and separate TV area.

We are wow-wowed by Chalet Pow Pow and we think you will be too.
