

Chalet Schlumatt

Zermatt, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the impressive outdoor area, with large pool, 2 hot tubs and lots of space to lounge beneath patio heaters while you drink in the mountain view.

Good looks aren't everything but sometimes they do go a long way, and this stunning apartment has bags of good looks both inside and out.

Occupying an enviable location in Zermatt with ski-in/ski-out access for blue-run skiers, this luxury self-catered ski chalet is just a few minutes from the lifts and town centre, allowing you to make the most of Zermatt's fabulous restaurants and bars.

The interior has been thoughtfully designed, in a traditional Swiss style and using the best of Swiss design, with beautiful oak floors and warm woods throughout at this luxury ski chalet.

The bathrooms are Italian-designed, making each a contemporary retreat from the world. The heart of the chalet, however, must be the fabulous open-plan living area. With double height ceilings overlooking fabulous Matterhorn views, it's just the spot to warm yourself after a day on the slopes next to the statement fireplace, which is a work of art in itself.

In the evenings, a fully equipped kitchen allows you to cook for yourselves if you wish and whoever is on 'chef' duty can still feel very much part of things. The dining area seats everyone comfortably on leather-covered scroll-back chairs, so you can linger over the table long into the evening on your luxury ski holiday here.

Before you turn in for the night and snuggle under luxury bed linens in your cosy room, take a moment to enjoy your nightcap out on the balcony, whilst taking in the wonderful views. With twinkling stars and the dark mountains looming over the town, it's magical.
