

Chalet Valambrun Les Gets, France

What we love...

We love the stunning indoor swimming pool - and the secret window that looks onto it from above!

For those who care as much about comfort and cosiness as they do about style, Chalet Valambrun is a winner. With bedrooms furnished with Lacroix and Lauren, there's no shortage of designer good looks here, but sumptuous throws and warm sheepskins provide equal amounts of 'aaah factor'. In fact, one of the bedrooms even has its own stove. You don't get much more cosy than that.

The main living areas in this luxury ski chalet are just perfect for a gathering of family or good friends. An L-shaped sofa by the side of the fire creates a warm corner for you to get together after a day on the slopes and catch up on everyone's adventures. The whole living space is beautifully light and airy in the daytime, when sunlight streams through the floor-to-ceiling doors that lead out onto the sunny balconies. But in the evenings, twinkling lights, Sonos sound system and stacks of board games make this a supremely cosy place to dine, drink and soak up the convivial atmosphere.

Rest and relaxation is high on the agenda, too. Between the outdoor cedar hot tub in which you can soak away any aches and pains with a view of the snow and a glass of bubbly in your hand, and the beautiful steam area, there's always somewhere for everyone to soothe both body and soul. But the jewel in this luxury chalet's crown must be the delightful indoor swimming pool, where you can swim beneath twinkling star-style lights. You can even peek down on the pool through the glass ceiling from one of the bedrooms.

With easy access to two lift stations, you're never more than moments from the powder and everything is made as simple as possible, with a lovely handcrafted wooden ski room, with boot and glove dryers to ensure all your ski gear is always dry and toasty and ready at a moment's notice.

Eating

High quality ingredients and contemporary menus are what it's all about at Chalet Valambrun.

Continental breakfast is served each morning with hot options on six days. Afternoon tea is laid out when you return from the slopes, with hot drinks and homemade cakes to welcome you back to the chalet.

On six evenings, a gourmet four-course meal is served with wine to accompany. On Tuesday nights, Tartiflette is brought to your chalet for you to serve yourselves for a relaxed meal in the comfort of your own luxury ski chalet. On the chef's day off, a continental buffet is served for breakfast and staff will be happy to book restaurant tables for you for the evening meal.

Your chef will also take into account any dietary requirements and early children's dinners can be provided.

Chalet Valambrun

Kids

This luxury family friendly ski chalet is a great choice for groups with children.

The triple bunk room is the perfect spot for kids to make their den for the week, with chunky wood bunk beds they'll be happy to climb into at night. And there are an extra two large bunks outside two of the main rooms, where a couple of extra little ones can bunk down. Several of the bedrooms can be configured as either double or twins too, giving your party maximum flexibility.

Children of all ages are sure to love the indoor swimming pool - just wait until they spot the secret window in the floor of one of the bedrooms that looks straight down into the pool!

In the evenings, while the snow is falling outside, younger guests might like to get cosy in the cinema room for a movie night, or get out a pile of boardgames in front of the fire. There's plenty here to keep guests of all ages busy.

Your chef will be happy to do an early evening children's tea and childcare can be arranged on request.
