

La Vallée Blanche Verbier

What we love...

We love this beautifully designed chalet with its convenient location - just a 2 minute walk to the ski lift and the best bars and restaurants.

Sleek, chic and contemporary, this luxury self-catered ski apartment in Verbier has a brilliant location which makes for a great base for a break in the snow with family or friends.

The light, bright interior makes the apartment a space where it's easy to relax completely. In the open-plan living area, a huge sofa is perched in front of the modern feature fireplace; a cosy spot to get together when your skiing day is done and catch up with the rest of your party.

Nearby is a top-of-the-range kitchen, equipped with everything you could need to make your stay here really special. Grab a coffee in the morning and find a spot on the sunny covered balconies to take in the mountain air and start your day enjoying the stunning views of the Alps. In the evenings, you and your party can enjoy drinks and canapés around the refectory-style dining table before heading out to enjoy all that Verbier has to offer.

The high-tech entertainment system has invisible speakers that allow you to listen to music all over the apartment, as well as watch movies, open the blinds and adjust the lighting, all at the touch of a button.

When it's time for bed, each of the luxe bedrooms has goose-feather and down duvets to make each a place you'll be longing to retreat to at the end of the evening.

And in the morning, when you're raring to be out on the powder, the Médran lift is just a two-minute walk away, from where you have the whole of Les 4 Vallées at your fingertips.
