

Villa Cambria

St. Tropez, France

What we love...

We love the villa's peaceful location, set within 200 hectares of private estate with private riding stables, vineyards, olive gardens and nature trails...

You feel the stresses and strains of life begin to lift and float away, even as you drive up to the entrance of this luxury villa. Passing by olive gardens, lavender bushes and lush greenery within this private estate, a sense of calm pervades as you approach the house.

Villa Cambria is a real retreat; secluded and quiet and with everything you could need on site. Lovers of the outdoors will never tire of wandering through the tropical-style gardens, enjoying the vineyards and nature trails. The villa also boasts its very own private equestrian yard with four horses available for guests to ride, at additional cost, under supervision of the villa's 'horse whisperer'.

There is also a recently renovated artists' studio, with four en-suite bedrooms, where you can take private cooking or art classes. Additionally, you can enjoy a relaxing stretch in the yoga studio to unwind.

However, for those who prefer to take their rest and relaxation a little more slowly, Villa Cambria comes up trumps. Lounge on the outdoor beds by the swimming pool, curl up with a book in the garden chairs, or simply sit at the alfresco dining table over long lunches and many a bottle of wonderful local wine, catching up with friends and family.

Four luxury bedrooms with spa-style en-suites in the main part of the villa and another four in the artist's studio give everyone plenty of room to themselves. But there's lots of communal space here too, with contemporary and airy living and dining spaces where you can gather to eat and relax, as well as a fabulous kitchen with bar adjacent to the cooking island so you can watch your chef at work over a glass of wine.

If you do decide to venture out of your luxury villa, you'll want to make the most of the stunning beaches on your doorstep as well as experience the bustle of glamorous Saint Tropez, whether to shop alongside the town's famous visitors or to people-watch from its boutique bars. We all need a bit of escapism now and then and we think you'll find it in spades here at Villa Cambria.

Eating

You'll be well fed and watered here at every stage. A private Michelin-trained chef will be on hand six days out of seven to create menus tailored to your party.

Each morning, a cooked and continental breakfast is served to begin your day in a leisurely fashion. By lunchtime, when the gardens are at their best, you'll enjoy an alfresco meal out in the sunshine. Then, in the evenings, you'll begin with drinks and canapés, followed by a four-course gourmet meal, finishing with a platter of local cheeses.

Local wines flow freely throughout your stay and the villa comes with fully stocked snacks and drinks fridges so there's something to keep you going at any time of day.

Any dietary requirements, or even simple whims are taken into consideration and your chef will be happy to arrange dedicated kids' meals in the early evening to appeal to younger palates, too.

Staff will be happy to recommend restaurants and make bookings for your chef's day off.
