

Villa Mas de la Rube St. Jean Cap Ferrat

What we love...

We love the infinity pool that seems to fall right into the sea. One of the best we've ever seen.

It's hard to imagine a property with a better view than this: little white boats bobbing on the Bay of Villefranche, lush green hills and turquoise waters below, framed by two jutting headlands at either side with the ocean opening out beyond. With an outlook like this, you could hardly notice your beautifully designed and luxurious surroundings.

But we think you'll still take time to enjoy all this luxury villa in the Cote d'Azur has to offer.

A stay here is like having one of the best hotels in the world all to yourself. Each of the luxury bedrooms has at least one spa-style en-suite and is the last word in hotel comfort and chic design.

The light and airy living spaces are open plan and include a top-of-the-range kitchen, modern dining space and generous living area with room for everyone in your party to sprawl comfortably. Floor-to-ceiling windows disappear completely into the walls across the front of this lovely living and entertaining space, opening it out onto the stunning terrace. An outdoor living room and alfresco dining room mean you can live as much outdoors as in here, taking meals on the terrace and relaxing in comfortable armchairs with a book and a drink outside.

Step off the terrace and you're in the villa's lush, green landscaped gardens, where you can wander, with or without purpose, happily all afternoon, just taking in that fabulous waterside view. An infinity edged pool at the end of the garden is designed so that swimmers have the feeling of being able to paddle straight out to sea. And, of course, the garden has its own private steps down to the water's edge so you can get up close and personal with your fabulous location.

Villa Mas de la Rube's staff are without a doubt one of the highlights of a stay here. Always on hand, yet invisible, each and every member of staff here is as dedicated as they are discreet. Whatever your need, or simply fancy, from a drink topped up to a pillow plumped to a table booked, the villa's staff are happy to help (if they haven't sorted it already). The ethos here is that you should feel like you are in the best hotel in the world - and that you have it all to yourselves.

Kids

Your wish (and your children's wishes) are the staff's command here. Whether you want nannies and babysitters for the evenings or children's entertainment in the privacy of your villa while you relax and enjoy a massage, it can be arranged.

Little ones have plenty of space to run round here and will enjoy playing in the wonderful pool. The sea is just seconds away, too - it's a proper kid's paradise.

Please be aware that the pool is not closed off and the villa has direct access down to the steps so younger children may need supervision.

Location

Villa Mas de la Rube is surrounded by sea on three sides, giving it the feeling of a tropical island retreat but with the chic town of St Jean Cap Ferrat close by. The villa looks out over the bay of VilleFranche and has direct access by steps down to the sea.

St Jean Cap Ferrat with its many bars, restaurants and boutique shops is 6mins drive away, or half an hour's stroll. The nearest airport is Nice Cote d'Azur, a 30mins drive

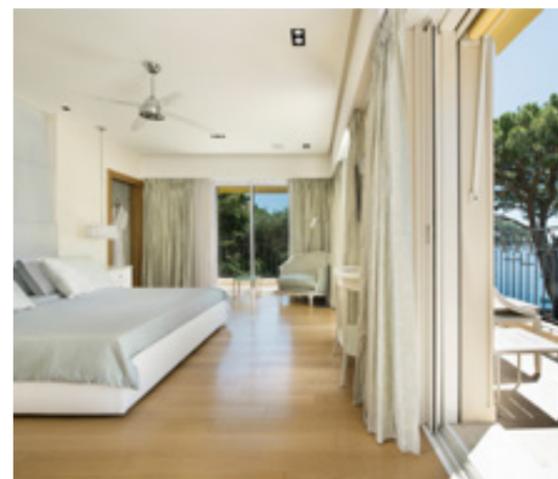

Eating

Your private chef and butler will look after all your needs, food and drinks-wise. On arrival you'll be greeted with champagne to set the tone for the rest of your stay. Menus can be perfectly tailored to your party's needs, whether you want formal dining in the expansive dining room that opens right out to the manicured gardens, or laid back lunches overlooking the sea.

The talented and attentive staff and fabulous location mean eating in your villa here is more akin to a five-star-hotel private dining experience, but everything can be personalised to suit you. You have only to ask.

If you wish to eat out, the villa's staff can help with booking tables and arranging transport to some of Cap Ferrat's best restaurants. We particularly like Le Cap and La Table du Royal.

Please note that food and drinks are charged for separately.
