

Chalet Four Twenty L'Élé

Morzine, France

What we love...

We love the breezy open plan living area which opens out onto a balcony offering wonderful views of the valley.

Minimalists rejoice! We've found your spiritual home. A showpiece of modern architecture and design, you'd never guess that this luxury ski chalet was once a traditional Alpine barn. Chalet Four Twenty L'Élé was transformed in 2017 and it's certainly something to write home about.

Unique style features and traditional wooden beams rub shoulders with designer fixtures and furnishings to make this a truly distinctive property.

On entry level is the open plan living, dining and kitchen area. Dramatic floor to ceiling windows let in all that wonderful mountain light and offer views of the garden and Parc des Dérêches. There's a balcony – ideal for sundowners after a day on the slopes, and a sitting area arranged around a wood-burning stove along with a large dining table with Vitra rocking dining chairs.

For the musicians amongst you, there's a piano in the main living area, ideal for sing songs after dinner on your luxury ski holiday. If you have to keep in touch with work during your trip, the iMac, iPad, GoPro© and printer should do the trick.

The open plan kitchen allows you to socialise whilst cooking. Of course, if you prefer to leave the cooking to the experts, the services of a private chef can be arranged on request.

The stunning glass staircase leading to the upper bedroom level is a showstopper at this luxury ski chalet. Two bedrooms and a master suite are located on this floor and look out over the double height living area with stunning views.

The lower level offers a second living space ideal for those with children. There's a large seating area, wood burning stove and television along with an open plan dining area and second kitchen, two large en-suite bedrooms and a balcony with second outdoor area. This arrangement allows multi-generational or two family groups to enjoy Chalet Four Twenty L'Élé whilst also having their own space.
