

Chalet Thanasis Megeve, France

What we love...

We love the fabulous cinema room with its ceiling studded with 'stars'.

Modern and magical, this luxury ski chalet in Megeve is a real find. Ultra-contemporary and recently built, Chalet Thanasis is a super-comfortable, super-stylish base for your break, where everyone feels right at home.

Clever use of the open-plan space gives every member of your group plenty of room to socialise as well as to find somewhere quiet to relax and find a moment's peace whenever they need. Sliding doors can separate the kitchen and dining areas if you wish, or can be thrown back to create one larger space. And the fireplace is positioned to create two living room areas - one large space with capacious sofas where you can lounge with friends and family in the evenings, as well as a smaller 'snug' type room, perfect for curling up in with a glass of wine and a book.

The bar area and wine cellar are always open for you to enjoy a quiet drink or two, or perhaps pick out a bottle to have with dinner. Your butler is always on hand to ensure every glass is charged and make recommendations about various wines for you.

After an energetic morning on the slopes, you might like to pop down to Chalet Thanasis' amazing spa area. There's an indoor swimming pool and loungers around it, as well as a sauna and fitness equipment. Looking down on it all is the fabulous painted ceiling with sky and tree trunks, so you can relax beneath, feeling like you're looking up at a forest canopy. There's also an outdoor Jacuzzi, ideal for easing aches and pains from your day's ski, and best enjoyed with a glass of Champagne in one hand, we think.

Each of the bedrooms is individually designed in a boutique hotel style. Warm woods, beds piled with furs and throws and little design details make each bedroom a lovely bolthole to retreat to at the end of each day.

The creators of Chalet Thanasis really have thought of every detail. We think you'll find it very hard to say goodbye to at the end of the week.
