

Chalet Helikon Zermatt, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the sheer space in this luxury ski chalet, which is spread over seven floors.

Bring a bit of magic to your luxury ski holiday with a stay at Chalet Helikon, where a maze of rooms combine uber-modern design with rustic materials.

Rich, rough-hewn woods and capacious velvety sofas bring a feeling of sophisticated comfort, while all the details and tech are carefully considered to ensure your whole holiday is as easy and lazy as possible.

With seven lift stops (three floors and four half floors) there's plenty of room for everyone to relax at Chalet Helikon. The five double rooms and two bunk rooms each have an en-suite bathroom and are decorated to be a wonderfully comfortable hideaway.

Right at the top of the building is the cathedralesque living space, with a stunning, modern fireplace taking centre stage and huge sofas gathered on either side with plenty of room for everyone to sprawl with the papers in the afternoons or catch up with friends and family over a glass of bubbly pre-dinner.

The glamorous dining space, half a level below, seats 14 people and is a wonderful spot to while away an evening over gourmet food and fine wines. Then perhaps take your drinks out onto the wide south-facing balcony, which has views of the Matterhorn itself.

With a fabulous spa area with 600-metre-square swimming pool and sauna, there's plenty of chance to relax and pamper yourself, too; particularly welcome after a long day on Zermatt's slopes. This luxury ski chalet is just a short walk from the Matternorn Express lift station so you can really make the most of the skiing here – you'll always be first out on the snow.

Eating

The chefs at this luxury ski chalet in Zermatt are each picked from some of the best restaurants around the globe and many have Michelin experience. They'll be happy to design beautiful menus to surprise and delight you at every turn but are always approachable and flexible and happy to tailor menus to any dietary requirements, likes and dislikes and offer a pre-trip menu consultation.

Each morning you'll wake to a hearty cooked breakfast to set you fair for a day on the slopes and when you return from the snow, afternoon tea and cake are waiting.

Evenings are kicked off with Champagne and canapés followed by a four-course dinner and wines chosen to accompany each meal. There's also an open bar so your drink need never run dry.

Your chef will also be happy to do an early evening children's tea on five evenings to suit your little ones' bedtimes and so that you can relax and enjoy your evening meal in peace.

On the staff's day off, they will be pleased to arrange bookings for you at the restaurant of your choice and will leave out a continental breakfast to get you started in the morning.
