

Villa Aztec

Ibiza

What we love...

We love the fully retracting windows in the lounge that open onto a grand staircase down to the pool, which truly blurs the lines between indoors and outdoors.

Sleek lines, striking design, stunning views: Villa Aztec is the very epitome of contemporary. Situated in the distinguished Cap Martinet area of Ibiza, this luxury villa typifies everything The White Isle is famed for.

Swaying palm trees and inch perfect landscaping make the perfect setting for a property of this distinction. Spanning across two open-plan vast floors, this gleaming white property is architecturally astonishing. Cuboid lines and rounded render make it aesthetically pleasing whilst clever use of space creates private terraces and flowing flower gardens.

No luxury Spanish villa would be complete without a swimming pool and at Villa Aztec you are guaranteed one of the finest on the island. Not just your average square pool either. Wavy edges align perfectly with the bordering tree line and comfy loungers offer the perfect place so soak up that summer sun.

Outdoor living is what the Balearics are all about so grab a glass of bubbly and find one of the numerous lounge areas of this pristine property to park up in and watch the sun set into the western seas. There isn't a finer place in Ibiza to chill out to the smooth sounds of Café Del Mar on the incredible sound system than at Villa Aztec.

Inside, Villa Aztec has been designed to let the outside world in. Floor to ceiling retractable windows let the magnificent Mediterranean Sea view in whilst flooding the stylish interior with sweet summer sunshine. Open plan living spaces flow from one to another making this home the ultimate summer retreat for those wanting a get together in smooth sophistication. Elegant furnishings and suave artwork create a feeling of grandeur whilst modern touches bring the piece right up to date. Couple that with a high tech Bang & Olufsen system throughout the interior and in several zones outside and you've found your zen right here.

Six luxury bedrooms are scattered around offering privacy and seclusion. King size beds and lavish individual suites with his'n'hers basins and free standing baths make for a classy place to bathe - the master suite even offers a sea view from the bath itself.

Overlooking the old town of Ibiza in its own private hillside setting, tranquility is assured at Villa Aztec.
