

Villa Skyline Corfu

What we love...

We love the vibrant gardens, filled with flowers and multiple plush outdoor lounge areas, from where you can take in the sensational sea view.

If you've been hunting for the perfect island retreat, you might find it here, hidden behind the bougainvillea and cypresses on a sought-after private estate. True to its namesake, this luxury villa in Corfu has 180-degree views of where the sky meets the sea, so the view of the big blue is the accompaniment to the pink hues of sunset. The lush gardens are teeming with fruit trees bursting with lemons, limes and figs - Mediterranean aromas to awaken the senses as you raise a glass with friends and family in the sociable L-shape al fresco lounge.

Villa Skyline is a spacious, airy and contemporary property with a stylish interior designed around white walls and exposed brick for a modern rustic feel that encourages everyone to relax. The communal rooms offer you all a place to sprawl in comfort and each of the airy bedrooms is a cool and restful bolthole to retreat to at the end of the evening, with crisp, cotton sheets, fluffy towels and spa-style bathrooms.

But undoubtedly, it's the outdoor spaces at this property that make it really magical. The fabulous L-shaped pool is shielded by trees and sun loungers, which have sea views, as well as a heated shower for afterwards before you dry off in the sun with a book. There are also numerous alfresco areas, sitting spaces and chill-out zones dotted about all over the gardens, so everyone can find their own space to relax together or enjoy a little peace.

Just a short drive from historic Corfu Town as well as numerous beautiful sandy beaches, this perfectly placed
