

Chalet La Grange Val d'Isere, France

What we love...

We love the spa on the lower ground floor with swimming pool with counter current, sauna, steam room and a massage cabin.

For a relaxing and super stylish break in the snow, Chalet La Grange's modern rustic style is just what every snow bunny needs.

Set right in the heart of town, this luxury chalet is just moments from the slopes and also a stone's throw from the best that Val d'Isere has to offer, from its boutique shops to its lively bars and fabulous eateries.

But you could truly lose yourself for a week in this chalet. Everything has been taken care of, to ensure that you want for nothing during your stay. The chalet is part of the La Mourra hotel, which boasts a wonderful spa and two excellent restaurants, all of which can be accessed from the secret tunnel, below ground.

And the chalet itself is designed with your complete relaxation in mind. Each of the bedrooms is equipped with a king-size bed, spa-style bathroom and only the comfiest and cosiest of soft furnishings, to make each room a bolthole to retreat to for a rest at the end of the skiing day.

The communal areas are carefully designed to encourage both group dynamics and to create spaces for everyone to call their own, too. The cavernous living area is topped with a cathedral style roof, while warm woods and rich, colourful furnishings create a really welcoming atmosphere. An intimate dining area, beneath a statement chandelier, offers a spot for convivial dinners that run long into the evenings.

When you return, pleasantly exhausted from your ski, there are plenty of places both to collapse and recover quietly or to be sociable, too, from the stunning cinema room, kitted out with slubby sofas to sprawl on and faux fur throws to snuggle under, through to the beautifully equipped private spa with a swimming pool, sauna, steam room and even a massage cabin. And if you wish to pamper yourself further, guests of La Grange are always welcome in the La Mourra Hotel's own spa and further facilities, too.

Hunkering down never looked so glamorous as this.
