

Chalet Sophie La Tania, France

What we love...

We love the open-plan living area on the top, with arguably the best views in La Tania...

A warm welcome awaits you at Chalet Sophie. Located 30 metres from the piste, this rustic luxury ski chalet in La Tania is the perfect bolthole for a crowd of keen skiers, and you'll never waste a moment getting to the snow.

And inside, it does not disappoint either. The open-plan living area is centred around a fabulous modern fireplace, with comfy sofas piled with cushions and throws gathered around. The immense floor-to-ceiling window gives you wonderful mountain views from the living area. Nearby is a stylish dining space, close to the kitchen so you can watch your chef at work as they whip up meals you'll remember forever.

After a long day on the slopes, you'll be ready to slip into the heavenly outdoor hot tub – just the ticket for easing tired muscles. There's also a separate entertainment room with a flat screen TV, DVDs, Wii & table football, allowing your group to spread out once the serious business of skiing is finished for the day. There's plenty of space for everyone to either gather together or have a little quiet time alone.

When you retire to luxury bedrooms at the end of each evening, it is to only the cosiest of duvets and the softest of pillows. You'll sleep soundly here at Chalet Sophie, ready to start again tomorrow.

Eating

Your private chef and chalet host are on hand to make sure tummies are always full and glasses topped up during your stay at this luxury ski chalet.

Breakfast is served each morning, with cooked dishes on 5 days and buffet breakfast offered on staff days off. When you return from the snow, an afternoon tea with homemade cakes will be waiting to welcome you home.

On five evenings, a gourmet dinner will be prepared by your chef, including canapés, cheese and petit fours. You'll also enjoy complimentary drinks including a choice of 18 wines and bubbly selected by Verre Gourmand, plus an open bar with beer, soft drinks and Nespresso coffee.

Little members of the group can be catered for separately with early suppers if required, so they can be tucked up in bed early enough for the adults to enjoy their evening meal.

You'll have two evenings a week to sample the local restaurants and your chalet host will be more than happy to make recommendations and bookings.

Chalet Sophie

Kids

Young guests are given a warm welcome here, and the property is well set up for them to help them feel right at home.

If they're not worn out from a day skiing, they certainly will be after a splash in the hot tub.

The cosy TV room is the perfect spot for an evening film before bed, and there is even Nintendo Wii for keen gamers. So, while the youngsters are busy having fun, parents can relax with a few drinks in the main living area in peace.

A kids' bunk room means they can have their own bolthole away from the grown-ups to make as untidy as they like, and your chef will be happy to prepare special kids' teas suited to a younger palate.
