

Chalet Carat

Courchevel 1850, France

What we love...

We love the marble style indoor swimming pool and spacious home cinema.

Let the luxury of the chic alpine décor transport you to ultimate relaxation at Chalet Carat. With the slopes just a short walk away and the town a stone's throw by car, it's easy to explore all that Courchevel 1850 has to offer. Chalet Carat marries traditional charm, with elegant, modern furnishings throughout the three floors, and the homely colour palette makes you feel at ease the minute you walk inside.

The main chalet sleeps up to eight guests in four bedrooms. There's a sociable outdoor terrace area, shared by two of the bedrooms - perfect for a mid-evening tipple before dinner. The rooms are dressed in a cool, calming palette, and the daily turndown service means you'll be slipping into a freshly made bed every night, certain to send you off to dreamland after a big day on the slopes. If this isn't enough space, there's even an additional cosy apartment attached via the shared underground garage sleeping an extra two guests.

Chalet Carat is the perfect space for loved ones to come together for a special holiday. The elegant open plan kitchen, dining and living area found on the top floor is kitted out with all the modern facilities you would desire for your stay. The chalet exudes warmth, if it's not the natural light from the floor to ceiling windows, it's the crackle and pop of the open fireplace, calling you to curl up next to after dinner.

The entire lower ground floor of Chalet Carat is dedicated to rest, relaxation and entertainment. The marble style indoor swimming pool is a real feature. Not to mention the surrounding bar and spa area. This is a haven for adults and kids alike. Adults can enjoy soaking tired muscles and sipping delicious cocktails at the bar whilst the kids splash around in the pool or make use of the home cinema just next door.

Lift passes, ski hire, ski lessons, and restaurant bookings are easily organised without you having to lift a finger. Head out from your private ski locker to the capable hands of your ski instructor who is included in your stay for the first two days (when booked on a catered basis). This will help you get to grips with the local area and focus on improving your skills right at the start of your holiday. Come with high expectations. You won't be disappointed.
