

Chalet Mariefleur Meribel

What we love...

We love the cinema room with its sink-into leather sofas and the adjoining games room where a pool table provides hours of fun.

Luxury catered ski chalets don't come much better than Chalet Mariefleur in Meribel. The perfect blend of classic and contemporary, it conceals a stylish high-spec interior behind its enchanting Savoyard stone and alpine timber walls.

You'll want for nothing during your stay here. Chalet Mariefleur has a dedicated team including a chalet host and chalet manager, as well as a private chef to conjure up canapés, afternoon tea and delicious four-course dinners. As for additional facilities that go beyond the standard chalet offerings, how about a plush sound-proofed cinema room, den-like games room, sauna and steam room, and hot tub featuring lofty mountain views?

This four-storey chalet houses five bedrooms on its various levels. Each bedroom is a cosy cocoon with a cabin-style feel and comes with its own glossy en-suite bathroom. The communal space is a welcoming open-plan kitchen/dining/living area centred around a roaring fire, where you can all sit and chat over a few glasses of wine long into the evenings.

If you're planning a luxury ski holiday in France as a larger group, Chalet Mariefleur can be hired together with sister properties Chalet Brioche and Chalet Marielaine (subject to availability) to accommodate for up to 27 guests.

Eating

Top-quality food and drink is a big part of the experience at Chalet Mariefleur. A Champagne reception on arrival sets the scene for what's to come.

Wake to the smell of strong coffee and a hearty breakfast of cereals, pastries and fruit, with your private chef on hand to whip up your favourite fluffy pancakes or Eggs Benedict. When you return from your day's skiing, a classic afternoon tea will be waiting to refuel you.

The evening kicks off with canapés around the roaring fire. Then you will sit down to a mouth-watering four-course meal accompanied by a handpicked selection of wines and beers.

As is typical for catered ski chalets in France, you'll enjoy this fully catered experience five days out of seven. For two days, breakfast will be self-service and your host will be happy to recommend some top options for dinner in Meribel.

Chalet Mariefleur

Kids

When children aren't playing out in the snow, they'll love practising their pool shots in the games room or watching movies in the cinema room.

One of the bedrooms features a mezzanine with an additional single bed – an ideal cosy space for kids.

The chalet's private chef will prepare children's tea at 6pm, five nights per week, leaving you free to enjoy more leisurely dinners after their bedtime. Chalet staff can also help with booking ski lessons, non-ski activities and childcare.
