

Apartment Rendl St Anton

What we love...

We love the private spa for the guests of the Fabiola building, with sauna, gym and massage rooms all just waiting to soothe away any aches and pains picked up on the slopes.

Enjoy a snowy adventure in ultimate comfort in this luxury ski chalet in St Anton. Part of the exclusive Chalet Fabiola, Apartment Rendl is a ground floor apartment perched above the town that's also a real mountain bolthole, where it's impossible not to relax.

Natural stone and rustic woods inside the property bring a bit of traditional Alpine charm but with a modern twist. The living space is the heart of the property with a comfy sofa and cosy armchairs gathered around a contemporary fireplace. Whether you're sprawled across the chairs watching Netflix on the large flatscreen TV, curled up reading a book, or catching up with the rest of your group over a few glasses of bubbly after a tiring day on the slopes, this is a wonderful place to kick back and relax. Close by is a modern dining space great for delicious meals prepared in the kitchen kitted out with top-of-the-range appliances. Two pretty terraces give you somewhere to take in the mountain air over a morning coffee or an evening nightcap.

As part of Fabiola, you'll be able to enjoy impressive shared facilities such as the wellness suite, where you can relax after a day on St Anton's slopes. The shared heated ski room allows you all to kick off your skis the moment you tramp in from the snow and then find your kit, warm, dry and ready for you again the next day.

At the end of a long day, Apartment Rendl's three comfortable bedrooms, each with their own bathroom and a king-sized bed, offer ultimate relaxation, each a bolthole to escape to as the day draws to a close.

Approximately 250 meters away is the nearest Zammermoos piste meaning you can be out on the snow within seconds, and it's just a short drive from the centre of town, too, and all St Anton has to offer.

Eating

Whilst Apartment Rendl is usually offered on a self-catered basis, service of a private chef just for breakfast or half-board service can be provided (subject to availability).

If you choose to cater for yourselves, whoever is playing chef can still be sociable and chat to friends and family while preparing meals in the open-plan kitchen. Or if you feel like dining out, St Anton is well known as a great place for foodies with many fabulous restaurants and eateries to explore.

If you choose to personalise your stay and upgrade, your private chef will ensure every meal is memorable. Each morning a delicious breakfast will be served so you leave for the slopes well fed for an energetic day. You'll return to the chalet to find afternoon snacks ready and waiting to refuel you after your skiing adventures and see you through until dinner, which is a gastronomic feast, served on five nights out of seven. But if what you prefer is simple comfort food, or something healthy and light, you have only to let your chef know.
