

Chalet Pure Megeve

What we love...

We love the quiet serenity of Chalet Pure, particularly the serene wellness area.

The gorgeous, self-catered Chalet Pure is the epitome of modern alpine. It's the ideal location for a group or family of up to eight who want to be surrounded by peace and beauty of the natural environment without compromising on the luxury, high-end furnishings of a lavish mountain stay.

Spread over four floors, the interior and high-quality wood is offset by the dark, contemporary cabinetry and statement lighting pieces. The décor is consistent and impressive throughout Chalet Pure, and as you move through room to room, you'll feel the serenity from the mountains seeping into the apartment. The open plan living and dining room is the ideal spot for long, lazy evenings curled up in front of the big TV.

In order to give the space as much privacy as possible, whilst remaining sociable – the TV area (equipped with a smart TV) and main lounge area are separated. This means whether you're after a comfortable movie night or a chilled après glass of wine on the sofa, you won't interrupt others in your group.

Framed by floor to ceiling glass doors leading to the huge wrap around balcony – watching the sun set, nestled in your sun lounger with an après drink taking in the surrounding vistas has never been more enjoyable.

After a long day on the slopes, kick off your wet gear in your private ski room and head straight to the sauna to warm your tired muscles. If you're not so into skiing but you're a fitness lover, why not check out your private gym to work up an appetite before dinner? Each of the chalet's four bedrooms have gorgeous en-suite shower rooms with the master boasting a sleek freestanding bathtub and his/hers sinks. Wrap up in the robe and slippers, waiting for you in the rooms and sink in for a pamper night of relaxation. Chalet Pure does not compromise on quality.

The chalet team will help you with the finer details, like delivering your lift-passes and sorting out your boot fitting to make day one as stress-free as possible.

Eating

Chalet Pure is offered on a self-catered basis and great care has been taken into the detail of the chalet to ensure that the open plan dining space and kitchen is well-equipped with everything you'd need to create delicious meals. The chic breakfast bar faces the kitchen, meaning your sociable morning coffee or evening meal preparations just got that bit more fun. The grand table seats eight and its elegance and proximity to the kitchen means it's both accessible and special, bringing your home cooked meals to life.

If you want help planning a special evening meal on the mountain or just need some advice for the best restaurants to visit in town, simply ask the concierge service for some assistance – they're happy to help.

Chalet Pure

Kids

Chalet Pure is built for family fun. With four spacious bedrooms and living space in abundance over the four floors there's plenty of room for kids to play and for adults to escape to their own calm space. The real highlight for families is the open plan lounge that leads onto a separate adjacent TV area – perfect for snuggling up with a good book whilst your little ones watch their favourite film. The coffee table and large sofa area is big enough for the whole family to sit around and enjoy a game of cards or a board game in the evenings.

The location of this property makes it a fantastic location for family groups who are less interested in the hustle and bustle of the main town, and are instead more focused on spending time together – putting family at the heart of their holiday in this peaceful location.
