

Villa V Puglia

What we love...

We love the beautiful swimming pool, surrounded by luxe wooden sun loungers, where you can relax in the sun after a dip.

Sleek, chic and thoroughly laid back, Villa V is a dream location for a luxury holiday in Puglia. Neutral palettes and pared-back design combine to make this a space where you can truly relax.

The living spaces, comprising a calming sitting area with low-slung sofas with huge cushions to sprawl on, and a contemporary dining space, look out onto olive groves on one side and the sea on the other – a constant reminder of the villa's fabulous location. A well-equipped kitchen gives you the chance to cater for yourselves if you wish, and a sociable island area is the perfect spot for a glass of wine and a chat with the chef. Floor-to-ceiling windows and doors let the light flood into the living spaces and they open up onto huge terraces with an outdoor sitting and dining area so you can always make the most of the fresh air and smell of the sea while you lounge, eat and catch up with friends.

The jewel in Villa V's crown is the open-air private pool, perched up on its own terrace and surrounded by wooden sun loungers with sea views. If ever you decide you want a wilder swim, the beach is just five minutes away by car.

As each sunny day draws to a close and the crickets start to sing, you'll retire to one of four relaxing bedrooms, each with private bathroom and stocked with fluffy towels, plump pillows, luxury bath products and everything you could need for an undisturbed night's sleep.
