

Villa Trinity Corfu

What we love...

We love the outdoor swimming pool where you can gaze out over the shimmering sea in total privacy.

A stay at this luxury Corfu villa is a real tonic for anyone who wants to escape everyday life for a little while.

Everything you'd expect on a luxury villa holiday is here in style: an elegant design, all mod cons (including a smart home system and underfloor heating for winter stays), plush robes, and a dazzling swimming pool with sea view. When the sun begins to set and the sunlight hits the water, it's just magical here.

Step inside this four-bedroom luxury villa and you'll find a calm and cool atmosphere. Flowing white drapes and a neutral palette with black accents create a modern feel in the living area and beyond, and each of the four light and airy bedrooms has its own sleek monochrome en-suite bathroom – there's absolutely nothing dated in this property.

It's the kind of place for leisurely breakfasts in bed while the light floods in and showcases the sea view.

But it's the outdoor space that you'll be drawn to most – this is a villa where you can live a totally outdoor lifestyle. Snooze on a sun lounger under the shade of an umbrella, rustle up fantastic feasts on the barbecue and of course, take refreshing dips in the large swimming pool. The branded pool towels and beach bags are a nice boutique hotel-style touch.

If you can bear to leave your little slice of luxury, get out on the water with sailing and watersports, tee off at Corfu Golf Club, explore the Old Town, horse ride through the olive groves or close to the sea and go hiking along mountain trails.
