

Villa Viesca Tuscany

What we love...

We love the frescoes, artworks and antiques adorning this beautiful villa, bringing an authentic Italian manor house feel.

This stunning villa in the Tuscan countryside has been thoughtfully renovated to combine a sense of historic style with modern luxuries. Villa Viesca is one of seven villas on the prestigious Viesca Toscana estate, and comfortably accommodates up to 18 people with plenty of space for everyone to gather with friends and find a little peace and quiet alone, too.

Downstairs, the huge living room has doors onto a terrace with panoramic views, providing a fabulous backdrop for parties, as well as a wonderful outlook to enjoy over a coffee and the papers. A second living room with television offers a peaceful escape for anyone who just wants to put their feet up quietly for the afternoon.

Nearby is an elegant dining room, beautifully lit in the evenings for atmospheric dinners. For those who wish to self-cater occasionally, there is also a well-equipped kitchen and an adjacent breakfast room for less formal meals.

The villa includes use of a private chapel on the ground floor (ideal for ceremonies such as weddings) and a fascinating agricultural museum – not a feature you'll come across in many holiday villas.

Step outside into the Tuscan sunshine and you'll find a beautiful terrace looking out over the countryside and a fabulous swimming pool surrounded by loungers, where you can while away warm afternoons. And don't forget to spend some time simply wandering among the trees and manicured gardens, enjoying the shade.

For those in search of some adventure as well as relaxation, the staff at the estate can arrange activities including cooking lessons, wine tastings, horse riding, yoga, cycling trekking and tennis. Guests of the villa also have use of Spa La Corte in the estate's grounds where you can use the gym and enjoy hydromassages, saunas and a range of beauty treatments.

However you've spent your day at Villa Viesca, you'll likely end it with nightcaps on the terrace before climbing the stairs to the sleeping quarters. Further living rooms, fabulous frescoes and en-suite bedrooms, all exquisitely decorated, make this a space that's perfect for relaxation at the end of each day and somewhere you're sure to have sweet dreams.

Eating

Food fanatics will find lots to love in Tuscany where there is no shortage of local ingredients to experiment with, enjoy and take home to share.

Each morning at Villa Viesca, breakfast is served in your villa, allowing you to start the day slowly, enjoying coffee and a hearty meal out in the sunshine or, on chilly mornings, by the fire in the breakfast room.

As guests of the Viesca Toscana estate, you'll also have use of its wonderful restaurant, Il Borro Tuscan Bistro. It's open all day, serving traditional Tuscan food with a modern twist, made from seasonal and hyper local ingredients. Almost all of the food that isn't grown in the restaurant's own organic garden comes from local producers who have long-held relationships with Il Borro. The bistro also has its own shop where you can pick up ingredients to take back to your villa and its fully equipped kitchen and several dining spaces, both inside and out.
