

Chalet Hôtel Blythe

Les Gets

What we love...

We love the relaxing private spa, including an indoor pool with jets to swim against, outdoor Jacuzzi, sauna, Hammam and ice room.

All the style of a boutique hotel along with the comfort and privacy of a luxury chalet, Chalet Hôtel Blythe might just be the perfect blend you're looking for.

The architect-designed building is as contemporary and stylish inside as its exterior suggests. A modern dining space with statement lighting offers a comfortable spot to relax with friends or family and enjoy long, leisurely meals served by your private chef. Laid-back lounge areas are perfect for relaxing with the papers over a coffee on lazy mornings or putting your feet up to catch up with friends when you return from your skiing day. The chalet is kitted out with top-of-the-range tech, too, from the Sonos sound system to UK satellite TV in the lounge and bedrooms, so there are never arguments over what to watch.

Indeed, your rest and relaxation are almost as important here as the fabulous skiing opportunities. As well as a gym and massage room where you can enjoy rejuvenating treatments, there's also a beautiful private spa. It includes an indoor swimming pool with jets to swim against, outdoor hot tub, sauna, Hammam and an ice room. After an energetic day on the slopes there's no finer way to recuperate a little in the afternoon and ease any aches and pains from your skiing day.

The practicalities have also been considered, with secure parking for those who have driven to Les Gets, and a huge ski room with boot and glove warmers so your kit is always ready to go. A complimentary ski butler service and help with arranging everything from restaurant bookings and ski lessons, to slopeside picnics and beauty treatments means that you never have to lift a finger at Chalet Hôtel Blythe; exactly as it should be.

With every detail carefully considered, you'll have little to do but sit back and enjoy both the adventures and the rest and relaxation. Take a moment at the end of each day to go up to the rooftop terrace with a nightcap and enjoy the fabulous views and breathe in the mountain air under the stars. Chalet Hotel Blythe is a magical setting that deserves your full attention.
