

Villa Due Torri Tuscany

What we love...

We love this villa's outdoor spaces, from the sunny infinity-edge swimming pool to the cool shade of the loggia with dining and living areas.

Charming style and views of hills rolling away in the distance are a constant reminder of your rather special location at this luxury villa in Tuscany. You really couldn't be anywhere else in the world.

Terracotta tiled floors, whitewashed floors, shuttered windows and wooden beams create classic Mediterranean style and a laid-back feel that means you relax the moment you walk through the door.

Villa Due Torri, named for its two beautiful turrets has its own unique style and is one of just seven private villas on the Viesca Toscana estate. Surrounded by beautiful gardens and lush greenery, the estate has a truly private feel but with all the benefits of a boutique hotel, including a spa, restaurant and gourmet shop.

But you could easily spend a week here, barely leaving the intimacy of your villa if you wished. Five en-suite double bedrooms give everyone a little bolthole to escape to whenever they feel in need of a little quiet, and the villa has an adjacent three-bedroom cottage, too, so large groups can enjoy Due Torri, with plenty of space to relax.

The ground floor is given over to communal living with a spacious and airy farmhouse-style kitchen, with scrubbed pine table and the old chimney still in place, but all the mod-cons you could wish for in a self-catered villa. Nearby is a pretty dining room with a chandelier over the table for intimate mealtimes indoors, then there's a cosy living space with comfy sofas and armchairs gathered around the stone fireplace.

Just outside is a loggia, with a dining area and an al fresco living room, so you can make the most of those long Tuscan evenings and starry skies.

The outdoor spaces are possibly our favourite aspect of this charming villa. Shrubs and trees surround a well manicured lawn, while comfy loungers and parasols sit both sides of a stunning infinity-edge swimming pool, in which blue skies are perfectly reflected. Sit back, glass of something delicious in hand, and just drink in your little piece of Tuscan paradise.

Eating

This luxury self-catering property in Tuscany is close to some of the world's best food producers and gourmands will be in their element here.

Villa Due Torri is set on the exclusive Viesca Toscana estate and, as guests of the estate, you'll be able to eat in its beautiful restaurant, Il Borro, which is known for its contemporary Tuscan cuisine. Open for breakfast, lunch and dinner, Il Borro also has its own shop, where you can buy locally produced foods to take back to your villa to enjoy.

The property has a traditional farmhouse-style kitchen with large breakfast table, an elegant dining area and also a covered outdoor dining space in the loggia. Whether barbecuing outdoors, or serving up lunches of cold local deli options, you're sure to eat well here.

If you wish, breakfast can be delivered to your villa each morning at an additional cost.

Villa Due Torri

Kids

Villa Due Torri is a family friendly property with plenty of space for children to run free. Surrounded by private gardens, giving parents peace of mind and kids room to roam and play. The swimming pool is sure to be a hit with children, who will happily spend long, sunny afternoons swimming and splashing.

The villa's staff will be happy to help with arranging activities during the day, including horse-riding and tennis lessons as well as excursions to nearby towns and cities.

There is an adjacent three-bedroom cottage, perfect for older children, grandparents or a nanny.

Nannies and babysitters can be arranged on request.

Location

Part of the exclusive Viesca Toscana estate, which is set within 70 hectares of gardens. There are more shops within a 20 minute drive of the villa. For day trips, Florence, Siena and Arezzo are all less than an hour away and Rome and Venice are also accessible via fast train from Florence.

The nearest airports are at Florence (35 mins away) and Pisa (1hr 30 mins away).
