

Masseria Torrelonga Puglia

What we love...

We love the charming private swimming pool area, which sits within a stone walled garden surrounded by centuries-old olive trees.

Steeped in history dating back to medieval times, yet with all the mod cons to make for an exceptional 21st-century stay, Masseria Torrelonga is an authentic Italian retreat. This stately building in the heart of the Puglia countryside began life as a watchtower. Today, it's a haven of sophisticated comfort.

Outdoor life here is sure to be centred around the charming swimming pool, which sits enclosed by a stone walled garden surrounded by six acres of centuries-old olive trees. Whether it's swimming a few refreshing laps in the glimmering waters in the heat of the day, taking an afternoon snooze in the shade or toasting sunset drinks, this peaceful spot is your own slice of Puglia paradise. Further seating areas can be found out on the dining terrace and under ornate pergolas in the peaceful courtyard.

Inside, thick walls protect from the summer heat. Six en-suite bedrooms are lovingly named after local plants, fruits and herbs, each brimming with its own character from alcove beds to feature fireplaces and porthole windows out to sea. One room is apartment-style with its own kitchen and living room – ideal for guests seeking extra space and privacy.

While you could happily spend your luxury villa holiday without leaving the centuries old olive tree filled grounds, the concierge is at hand to arrange everything from cooking lessons to golf to local excursions. Discover the hidden pathway which leads to the coastal village of Torre Canne or enjoy a picnic, yoga session or bike ride through the beautiful landscape around Masseria Torrelonga.

Eating

Superb food and drink, enjoyed over leisurely meals with friends and family, is a big part of life in Puglia, and this certainly rings true at Masseria Torrelonga. Tuck into the likes of local cheeses, baked tarts and muffins, washed down with fresh fruit juice and piping hot coffee all enjoyed al fresco in the beautiful courtyard, under ornate pergolas or alternatively in the dining room adjacent to the kitchen.

As well as a fully equipped kitchen, the villa comes with a pizza oven, so you can take turns at creating traditional pizza pugliese (tomato, red onion and mozzarella) and cooking them to perfection, served up with fresh local salads and Italian wines.

If your holiday style is having everything taken care of when it comes to food, a private chef can also be arranged at an additional cost.
