

Villa Le Macine Tuscany

What we love...

We love the villa's fascinating history as a former mill; thanks to its sensitive restoration it's now a one-of-a-kind Tuscan retreat packed with character and charm.

Villa Le Macine is a one-of-a-kind Tuscan retreat oozing charm and character. Step into a private sanctuary of towering cypresses, lush lawns and sun-dappled terraces, where the sound of rustling leaves and the flowing river creates an incredibly soothing atmosphere. There's history here in spades – the property was once a mill and thanks to its meticulous restoration you'll still find historic mill stones and a fourth-century kitchen incorporated into the modern-day design.

The accommodation comprises a delightful stone building and two barn annexes, creating the ideal setup for a luxury holiday in Tuscany with family or a group of friends. In the main villa, your eyes will be drawn to the elegant decor and exposed beams featured throughout the light and airy lounge, grand dining room and modern kitchen. Spacious bedroom suites have natural tones to encourage complete relaxation – for a unique space to sleep, lay your head in Le Macine suite, carved entirely out of the mill's old manger.

Outdoors, the large gardens provide all the privacy you could wish for from a luxury villa in Tuscany, inviting you to stay outside for hours on end. By day, splash around in the swimming pool, find a shaded spot in a secret seating nook or enjoy games of hide and seek. Come the evening, gather everyone to create their favourite pizzas in the pizza ovens and watch the sun go down with a glass of local wine in hand.
