

Villa Palma Dubrovnik

What we love...

We love the jaw-dropping terrace, where an infinity swimming pool and beach cabanas perch high above lush forest and glistening Adriatic waters.

Villa Palma is your own private coastal oasis away from the bustle of Dubrovnik. Colour comes to life here – all you can see from the villa's smart stone terrace is the outline of deep green forested slopes against the clear blue sea and bright blue sky. There's plenty of space for all guests to soak up the view – gaze out from the sun-drenched infinity swimming pool, perch on a plush sun lounger or bag prime vistas from one of the four-poster cabanas. At sunset, pop a bottle of fizz and watch in awe as the colour-changing sky is reflected in the swimming pool and the Adriatic below.

Surrounded by centuries-old olive groves, this farmer's family home-turned luxury villa offers a slice of total privacy, with no immediate neighbours. Guests even have exclusive access to a private beachside deck carved into the rocks, reached by a two minute walk along a private path and complete with a natural sea pool that's ideal for children.

Step inside Villa Palma and you'll be struck by the amount of natural light. The charming open-plan living and dining area has a homely terracotta floor and country-style kitchen, while airy en-suite bedrooms feature high wooden ceilings, custom closets and soft linens.

The village of Molunat encourages a slower pace of life and it's easy to get on board at Villa Palma. For a true taste of the Med, there's nothing better than buying boat-fresh tuna from the local fisherman and grilling up a simple feast on the garden barbecue.

Eating

Villa Palma's kitchen comes with everything you could need, whether you plan to whip up light lunches or create more elaborate meals. With large picture windows, you won't have to tear yourself away from the view even as you cook. To live like a local, tuck into freshly caught tuna (purchased from Molunat fisherman) grilled on the garden barbecue.

For meals away from your villa, Molunat has several bars and restaurants, as well as a market, with lots more options on offer half an hour away in Dubrovnik.

A private chef, pre-cooked meal delivery service and wine tasting can all be arranged on request at an additional cost.

Villa Palma

Kids

Villa Palma offers a relaxing home-from-home for families. Kids will love the infinity swimming pool but this villa has so much more to offer too.

The natural sea pool at the villa's private beach deck is a dream spot where children can splash and swim in total privacy. In addition to the villa's swimming pool, the private beach also has a choice of kayaking, paddle boarding and snorkelling to keep everyone entertained.

With a range of meal options from self-catering to a private chef (at extra cost), you can tailor your meal preferences to suit your family.

Location

Villa Palma is located in the small fishing village of Molunat, around 30 minutes south of Dubrovnik. Locals describe the village as 'The Med as it once was' and you'll find authentic local restaurants and bars here.

The villa has its own boat mooring, so it's easy to get out on the water.

Transfers from Dubrovnik airport take approximately 20 minutes.
